PREFACE.

---

THE Committee to whom was intrusted the work of preparing a Hymnal for the use of The Reformed Church in the United States has endeavored faithfully to abide by the instructions given at the time of its appointment at the meeting of the General Synod at Akron, Ohio, June, 1887, viz., "To prepare such a collection as may, in the judgment of the committee, be best adapted to the needs of the Reformed Church in the United States."

In now presenting to the Church the results of its long and arduous labors, the Committee desires first of all to return most devout thanks to the great Head of the Church for his most gracious guidance and help, and to pray that this collection of hymns of praise may for many years to come redound to his increasing glory in the service of the sanctuary, and furthermore to express the hope that this Hymnal may prove to be truly suited to the needs of the people of the Reformed Church and be abundantly blessed to their spiritual edification and profit.

To choose from the vast amount of material at hand and to decide what hymns should be admitted to the collection and what excluded, has been no easy task. On a careful examination, however, it will be found that very few, if any, of the good old hymns, endeared to our people from long usage, have been omitted; while on the other hand the claims of the more valuable amongst the modern and popular compositions have by no means been disregarded.

In preparing this collection the aim has been not only to choose the best hymns, but also to select the best music available (some of it at a very considerable cost for copyright privileges), and furthermore so to adapt the tunes to the words as at once to gratify a cultivated literary and musical taste and to insure the hearty enjoyment of the people. Of necessity by far the larger number of tunes are old. They have been so long in use and are so enshrined in the best affections of God's people, that to omit them would have been a serious offense. At the same time, also, much of the music will be found to be new. A vast number of so-called "popular tunes," whose favor is as surprising as it is ephemeral, have been studiously avoided; but those tunes of a more recent composition which appear to possess permanent and intrinsic value have been as carefully admitted.

It is now the pleasant duty of the Committee to acknowledge the uniform courtesy and kindness of many brethren in the ministry and amongst the laity of the Church, during the preparation of this work, and more particularly to express their obligation to the following persons:

To Mr. H. T. Buckley, organist of Third Street Reformed church, Easton, Pa., to Mrs. H. M. Kieffer, of Easton, Pa., and to Miss Lizzie May Fitz, of Martinsburg, W. Va., for valuable assistance in the musical part of the work:

To Bishop J. H. Vincent, to Miss Alice Nevin, to Dr. E. P. Parker, to Professors J. H. Kurzenknabe, E. C. Zartman, Fred. Schilling and Ira D. Sankey for special privileges in the use of tunes of their composition:

To the following musical composers and publishers for permission to use tunes of their composition or ownership: Oliver Ditson & Co., Biglow & Main, John Church & Co., Mrs. Sarah N. Holbrook, Mrs. Lizzie Tourgee Estabrook, Mr. U. C. Burnap, Mr. Theo. E. Perkins, Mr. John R. Sweney, Mr. Wm. G. Fischer, John T. Grape; also to the Publication Board of the Reformed Church for permission to use the hymns composed by the Rev. Dr. E. E. Higbee and the Rev. Dr. E. H. Nevin, and for all music selected from "Tunes for Worship," by Professor Henry Schwing:

And finally to Professor Henry Schwing both for permission to use music of his composition and for his valued services in editing the musical part of this collection.

May this Hymnal commend itself to the people of the Reformed Church in the United States. May it soon become the one book of praise in common use throughout all sections of the Church. And may God abundantly bless it to his service for many years to come.

H. M. KIEFFER,
J. A. HOPFHEINS,
JOHN M. SCHICK,
H. H. W. HIBSHMAN.

NOTICE.—Many hymns and tunes in this collection, as well as the arrangements and adaptations of music, are introduced "by permission," either purchased or given, and therefore can not be used without the consent of the authors or owners of the copyrights.

3 THE STRAIN UPRaise.

Adapted by A. H. D. TROYTE.

- 1 The strain upraise of joy and praise, Alle- | lu-ia!
To the glory of their King shall the ransomed | people sing, || Alle- | luia!
Alle- | luia!
- 2 And the choirs that | dwell on high,
Shall re-echo | through the sky, || Alle- | luia! || Alle- | luia!
- 3 They in the rest of Para- | dise who dwell,
The blessed ones with joy the | chorus swell, || Alle- | luia! || Alle- | luia!
- 4 The planets glitt' ring on their | heavenly way,
The shining constellations, | join and say, || Alle- | luia! || Alle- | luia!
- 5 Ye clouds that onward sweep, ye winds on | pinions light,
Ye thunders, echoing loud and deep, ye lightnings, | wildly bright, || in sweet con- | sent unite || your Alle- | luia!
- 6 Ye floods and ocean billows, ye storms and | winter snow,
Ye days of cloudless beauty, hoar frost and | summer glow,
|| Ye groves that wave in spring | and glorious | forests sing, || Alle- | luia!
- 7 First let the birds with painted | plumage gay,
Exalt their great Creator's | praise and say, || Alle- | luia! || Alle- | luia!
- 8 Then let the beasts of earth, with | varying strain,
Join in creation's hymn and | cry again, || Alle- | luia! || Alle- | luia!
- 9 Here let the mountains thunder forth so- | norous, || Alle- | luia!
|| There let the valleys sing in gentler | chorus, || Alle- | luia!
- 10 Thou jubilant abyss of | ocean cry, || Alle- | luia!
|| Ye tracts of earth, and conti- | nents, reply, || Alle- | luia!
- 11 To God, who all cre- | ation made,
The frequent hymn be | duly paid, || Alle- | luia! || Alle- | luia!
- 12 This is the strain, the eternal strain, the Lord Al- | mighty loves, || Alle- | luia!
This is the song, the heavenly song, that Christ, the | King approves,
|| Alle- | luia!
- 13 Wherefore we sing, both heart and voice a- | waking, || Alle- | luia!
And children's voices echo, answer | making, || Alle- | luia!
- 14 Now from all men | be outpoured || Alleluia | to the Lord;
|| With Alleluia | evermore || the Son and Spirit | we adore.
- 15 Praise be done to the | Three in One. | Alle- | luia!
|| Alle- | luia! || Alle- | luia! || Amen.

1 Thee we a-dore, e-ter-nal Lord, We praise thy name with one ac-cord;

Thy saints who here thy good-ness see Thro' all the world do wor-ship Thee.

2 To Thee aloud all angels cry,
The heavens and all the powers on high;
Thee, holy, holy, holy King,
Lord God of hosts, they ever sing.

4 From day to day, O Lord, do we Highly exalt and honor Thee;
Thy name we worship and adore,
World without end, forevermore.

3 The apostles join the glorious throng,
The prophets swell the immortal song,
The martyrs' noble army raise
Eternal anthems to thy praise.

5 Vouchsafe, O Lord, we humbly pray,
To keep us safe from sin this day;
Have mercy, Lord, we trust in Thee,
O let us ne'er confounded be.

1 Be Thou, O God, ex-alt-ed high; And as thy glo-ry fills the sky,

So let it be on earth dis-played, Till Thou art here as there o-beyed.

2 O God, my heart is fixed; 'tis bent
Its thankful tribute to present;
And with my heart my voice I'll raise
To Thee, my God, in songs of praise.

3 Thy praises, Lord, I will resound
To all the listening nations round;
Thy mercy highest heaven transcends;
Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.

1 God e-ter-nal, Lord of all, Low-ly at thy feet we fall; All the world doth worship Thee,

We a-midst the throng would be; All the ho-ly an-gels cry, Hail, thrice ho-ly,

God most high; Lord of all the heavenly pow'rs, Be the same loud anthem ours.

2 Glorified apostles raise,
Night and day, continual praise;
Hast Thou not a mission too
For thy children here to do?
With the prophets' goodly line
We in mystic bond combine;
For Thou hast to babes revealed
Things that to the wise were sealed.

3 Martyrs, in a noble host,
Of thy cross are heard to boast;
Since so bright the crown they wear,
We with them thy cross would bear,
All thy Church in heaven and earth,
Jesus, hail thy spotless birth;
Seated on the judgment-throne,
Number us among thine own.

1 GLORY be to God on high,
God, whose glory fills the sky;
Peace on earth to man forgiven,
Man, the well-beloved of heaven.
Sovereign Father, heavenly King,
Thee we now presume to sing,
Glad thine attributes confess,
Glorious all and numberless.

2 Hail, by all thy works adored,
Hail the everlasting Lord!
Thee with thankful hearts we prove,
God of power and God of love;

Christ our Lord and God we own,
Christ the Father's only Son,
Lamb of God, for sinners slain,
Saviour of offending man.

3 Jesus, in thy name we pray,
Take, O take our sins away;
Powerful Advocate with God,
Justify us by thy blood;
Hear, for Thou, O Christ, alone
Art with thy great Father One;
One the Holy Ghost with Thee,
One supreme, eternal Three.

Thus unite we to adore Him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow.

Unto Thee be glory given,

2 Blest Advent of our ling'ring Lord!
How high the hope, how sure the word,
That thus, with every year's return,
Makes our dull hearts within us burn
For that long-sought and promised day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And Christ from highest heavens shall come
To take his waiting people home.

3 Since childhood's early hours, our eyes
Have watch'd the east for red'ning

Year after year has Advent brought
Nearer to us the prize we sought;
But still it lingers—O that we
Were more prepared to welcome Thee!

Would not be tarrying, Lord, so long.

Far away from Thee I pine;
When, O when, shall I the gladness
Of thy Spirit feel in mine?
O my Saviour,
When shall I be wholly thine?

Spent the night, the day at hand;
Keep me in my lonely station,
Watching for Thee, till I stand,

20 FATHERLAND. 6s & 4s.

GEORGE KINGSLEY.

1 Fade, fade each earthly joy, Je - sus is mine; Break ev'ry tender tie, Je - sus is mine;
Dark is the wilderness, Earth has no resting-place, Je - sus alone can bless, Je - sus is mine.

- 2 Tempt not my soul away,
Jesus is mine;
Here would I ever stay,
Jesus is mine;
Perishing things of clay,
Born but for one brief day,
Pass from my heart away,
Jesus is mine.
3 Farewell, ye dreams of night,
Jesus is mine;
Lost in this dawning bright,
Jesus is mine;
All that my soul has tried
Left but a dismal void,
Jesus has satisfied,
Jesus is mine.
4 Farewell, mortality,
Jesus is mine;
Welcome, eternity,
Jesus is mine;
Welcome, O loved and blest,
Welcome, sweet scenes of rest,
Welcome, my Saviour's breast,
Jesus is mine.

21 JUDGMENT HYMN. P. M.

JOSEPH KLUG'S GESANGBUCH.

1 { Great God, what do I see and hear, The end of things cre - a - ted! }
 { The Judge of man I see ap - pear, On clouds of glo - ry seat - ed; }

The trum - pet sounds; the graves re - store The dead which they con - tained be - fore; Pre - pare, my soul, to meet Him.

2 The dead in Christ are first to rise
 At that last trumpet's sounding,
 Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
 With joy their Lord surrounding;
 No gloomy fears their souls dismay;
 His presence sheds eternal day
 On those prepared to meet Him,

3 Th' ungodly, filled with guilty fears,
 Behold his wrath prevailing;
 In woe they rise, but all their tears
 And sighs are unavailing;
 The day of grace is past and gone,
 Trembling they stand before his throne,
 All unprepared to meet Him.

W. B. Collyer, 1812.

o'er yon mountain's height, See that glo - ry - beaming star. Watchman, does its beauteous ray Aught of joy or hope foretell? Traveler, yes, it brings the day, Promised day of Is - ra - el.

2 Watchman, tell us of the night;
Higher yet that star ascends;
Traveler, blessedness and light,
Peace and truth its course portends;
Watchman, will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Traveler, ages are its own;
See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn;
Traveler, darkness takes its flight,
Doubt and terror are withdrawn;
Watchman, let thy wanderings cease,
Hie thee to thy quiet home;
Traveler, lo, the Prince of Peace,
Lo, the Son of God is come.

1 Light of those whose drear - y dwell - ing Bor - ders on the shades of death,

Rise on us, Thy - self re - veal - ing, Rise and chase the clouds be - neath.

- 2 Thou, of heaven and earth Creator,
In our deepest darkness rise;
Scatter all the night of nature,
Pour the day upon our eyes.
- 3 Still we wait for thine appearing;
Life and joy thy beams impart,

Chasing all our fears, and cheering
Every poor, benighted heart.

- 4 By thine all-sufficient merit
Every burdened soul release;
Every weary, wandering spirit
Guide into thy perfect peace.

- 1 CROWN his head with endless blessing,
Who, in God the Father's name,
With compassion never ceasing
Comes salvation to proclaim.
- 2 Lo, Jehovah, we adore Thee,
Thee, our Saviour, Thee, our God;
From his throne his beams of glory
Shine through all the world abroad.

- 3 Jesus, Thee our Saviour hailing,
Thee, our God, in praise we own;
Highest honors, never failing,
Rise eternal round thy throne.
- 4 Now, ye saints, his power confessing,
In your grateful strains adore;
For his mercy, never ceasing,
Flows and flows for evermore.

1 Hark, a thrill - ing voice pro - claim - ing, Sounds a - loud the com - ing light;

From the heav - ens, bright - ly gleam - ing, Christ shall chase a - way the night.

- 2 Souls, immersed in sin and torpid,
Wounded by its venom'd stings,
Now shall rise; for lo, the day-star
Comes with healing in his wings.
- 3 From on high the Lamb, commissioned
To remove our guilt, appears;
Let us all, to gain his pardon,
Pray with penitential tears—

- 4 That, when at his second advent,
Clouds of glory mark his path,
And the world in fiery deluge
Sinks beneath his dreadful wrath,

Exiles into endless doom,
But, beneath his strong protection
Sheltered, reach eternal home.

1 "For - ev - er with the Lord! A - men, so let it be;

Life from the dead is in that word, 'Tis im - mor - tal - i - ty.

- 2 Here in the body pent,
Absent from Him I roam,
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.
- 3 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near
At times to faith's foreseeing eye
Thy golden gates appear!
- 4 My thirsty spirit faints
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above.
- 5 I hear at morn and even,
At noon and midnight hour,

The choral harmonies of heaven
Earth's Babel tongues o'erpower.

6 "Forever with the Lord!"
Father, if 'tis thy will,
The promise of that faithful word
E'en here to me fulfil.

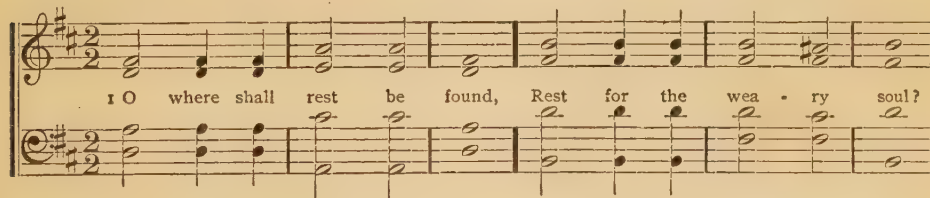

7 So, when my latest breath
Shall rend the veil in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.

8 Knowing as I am known,
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat before the throne,
"Forever with the Lord!"

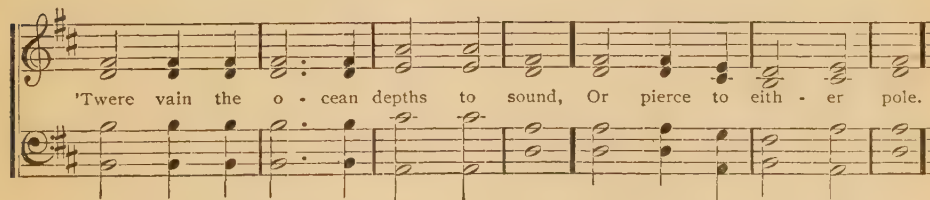

James Montgomery, 1835.

1 O where shall rest be found, Rest for the wea - ry soul?

'Twere vain the o - cean depths to sound, Or pierce to eith - er pole.

- 2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years,
And all that life is love.

- 4 There is a death whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath;
O what eternal horrors hang Around the second death!
- 5 Lord God of truth and grace,
Teach us that death to shun,
Lest we be banished from thy face,
And evermore undone.

James Montgomery, 1819

1 Come un - to Me when shadows darkly gath - er, When the sad heart is wea - ry and distressed,

Seek - ing for com - fort from your heavenly Father, Come un - to Me, and I will give you rest.

Per. O. Ditson & Co.

- 2 Large are the mansions in thy Father's dwelling,
Glad are the homes that sorrows never dim;
Sweet are the harps in holy music swelling,
Soft are the tones which raise the heavenly hymn.
- 3 There, like an Eden blossoming in gladness,
Bloom the fair flowers the earth too rudely pressed;
Come unto Me, all ye who droop in sadness,
Come unto Me, and I will give you rest.

Mrs. C. H. Esling, 1839.

1 We need Thee, Sav - iour, when dear eyes are clos - ing, When on the cheek the shadow li - eth strong,

When the soft lines are set in that re - pos - ing That never mother cradled with a song.

- 2 Then most we need the gentle human feeling
That throbs with all our sorrows and our fears,
And that great love divine its light revealing
In short bright flashes through a mist of tears.
- 3 Then most we need the voice that while it weepeth
Yet hath a solemn undertone that saith:
"Weep not; thy darling is not dead, but sleepeth;
Only believe, for I have conquered death."

Advent.

- 4 Then most we need the thoughts of resurrection,
Not the life here, 'mid pain and sin and woe,
But ever in the fulness of perfection
To walk with Him in robes as white as snow.
- 5 Didst Thou not enter in when that cold sleeper
Lay still, with pulseless heart and leaden eyes,
Put calmly forth each loud tumultuous weeper,
And take her by the hand and bid her rise?
- 6 Come to us, Saviour, in our lone dejection,
Speak calmly to our wild and helpless grief,
Bring us the hopes and thoughts of resurrection,
Bring us the comfort of a true belief.
- 7 Come, with that human voice that breaks in weeping,
Come, with that awful tenderness divine,
Come, tell us that they are not dead but sleeping,
But gone before to Thee, for they are thine.

4 And now we watch and struggle,
And now we live in hope,
And Zion in her anguish
With Babylon must cope.

5 But He whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known,
And they that know and see Him
Shall have Him for their own.

6 The morning shall awaken,
The shadows shall decay,

Let right to wrong succeed;

Advent.

He plants his foot-steps in the sea And rides up - on the storm.

- 2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sov'reign will.
- 3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.
- 4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust Him for his grace;

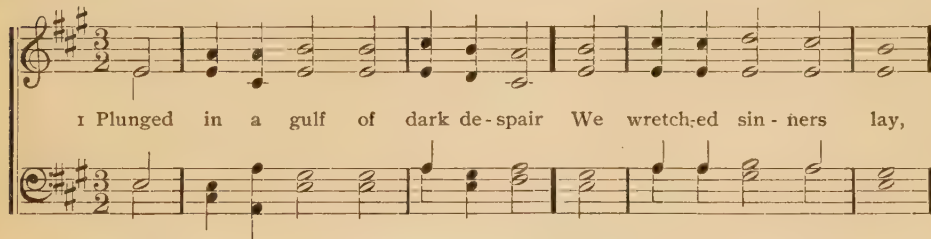

Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

- 5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.
- 6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And He will make it plain.

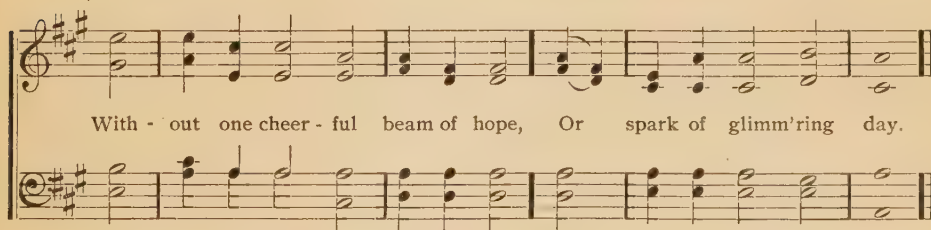

William Cowper, 1772.

I Plunged in a gulf of dark de-spair We wretch-ed sin - ners lay,

With - out one cheer - ful beam of hope, Or spark of glimm'ring day.

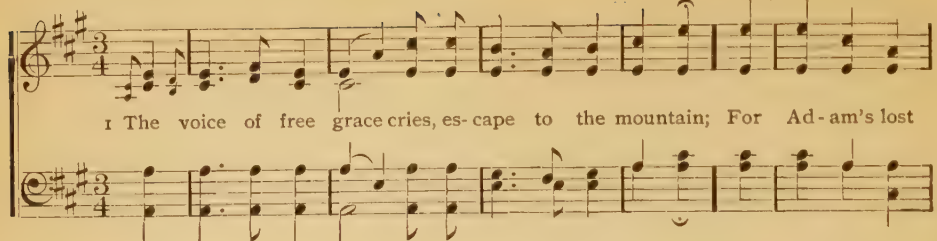

- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief;
He saw, and O amazing love!
He ran to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining seats above
With joyful haste He fled;
Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.
- 4 O for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break,
And all harmonious human tongues
The Saviour's praises speak.
- 5 Angels, assist our mighty joys,
Strike all your harps of gold;
But when you raise your highest notes,
His love can ne'er be told.

2 Ye souls that are wounded, O flee to the Saviour,
He calls you in mercy, 'tis infinite favor;
Your sins are increasing, escape to the mountain, [the fountain.
His blood can remove them, it flows from Hallelujah to the Lamb, etc.

3 O Jesus, ride onward, triumphantly glorious, [than victorious;
O'er sin, death and hell Thou art more
Thy name is the theme of the great congregation,

While angels and men raise the shout of salvation.
Hallelujah to the Lamb, etc.

4 With joy shall we stand, when escaped to the shore;
With harps in our hands we'll praise Him the more;
We'll range the sweet plains on the banks of the river,
And sing of salvation forever and ever.
Hallelujah to the Lamb, etc.

2 With thee in view, how poor appear
The world's most winning smiles!
Vain is the tempter's subtlest snare,
And vain hell's varied wiles

3 Then welcome toil and care and pain,
And welcome sorrow too;
All toil is rest, all grief is gain,
With such a prize in view.

4 Come, crown and throne, come, robe and palm,
Burst forth, glad stream of peace;
Come, holy city of the Lamb,
Rise, sun of righteousness.

5 When shall the clouds that veil thy rays
Forever be withdrawn?
Why dost thou tarry, day of days?
When shall thy gladness dawn?

1 AWAKE, awake the sacred song
To our incarnate Lord;
Let every heart and every tongue
Adore the eternal Word.

2 That awful Word, that sovereign power,
By whom the worlds were made—
O happy morn, illustrious hour—
Was once in flesh arrayed.

3 Then shone almighty power and love,
In all their glorious forms,
When Jesus left his throne above,
To dwell with sinful worms.

4 Adoring angels tuned their songs
To hail the joyful day;
With rapture then let mortal tongues
Their grateful worship pay.

1 HARK, the glad sound, the Saviour
The Saviour promised long; [comes,
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.

2 On Him the Spirit largely poured
Exerts his sacred fire;
Wisdom and might and zeal and love

3 He comes the prisoners to release,
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before Him burst,
The iron fetters yield.

4 He comes from thickest films of vice
To clear the mental ray,
And on the eyeballs of the blind
To pour celestial day.

5 He comes the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure;
And with the treasures of his grace
T' enrich the humble poor.

2 I love to meet thy people now,
Before thy feet with them to bow,
Though vilest of them all;
But can I bear the piercing thought,
What if my name should be left out,
When Thou for them shalt call?

3 O Lord, prevent it by thy grace,
Be Thou my only hiding-place,
In this the accepted day;

Thy pardoning voice O let me hear,
To still my unbelieving fear,
Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 Among thy saints let me be found,
Whene'er th' archangel's trump shall
To see thy smiling face; [sound,
Then loudest of the throng I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions
With shouts of sovereign grace. [ring

2 "Hosanna, Lord," thine angels cry;
"Hosanna, Lord," thy saints reply;
Above, beneath us and around,
The dead and living swell the sound,
Hosanna, Lord, hosanna in the highest.

3 O Saviour, with protecting care
Return to this, thy house of prayer,
Assembled in thy sacred name,
Where we thy parting promise claim,
Hosanna, Lord, hosanna in the highest.

4 But chiefest in our cleansed breast,
Eternal, bid thy Spirit rest,
And make our secret soul to be
A temple pure, and worthy Thee.
Hosanna, Lord, hosanna in the highest.

5 So, in the last and dreadful day,
When earth and heaven shall melt away,
Thy flock, redeemed from sinful stain,
Shall swell the sound of praise again,
Hosanna, Lord, hosanna in the highest.

Though Thou here wast crucified,
Yet the Father's glory raised Thee,

'Tis but fellowship with Thee;
What besides could be expected

Than like Thee, our Lord, to be?

We shall sing with rapture then:

- 2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining,
Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore Him, in slumber reclining,
Maker and monarch and Saviour of all.
- 3 Say, shall we yield Him in costly devotion
Odors of Edom and offerings divine,
Gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest or gold from the mine?
- 4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would his favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.
- 5 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us
thine aid;
Star of the east, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

1 To the name of our sal-vation Honor, worship, thanks, we pay, Which for ma-ny a gen-er-a-tion

Hid in God's fore-knowledge lay, But with ho-ly ex-ul-ta-tion We may sing a-loud to-day.

2 Jesus is the name we treasure,
Name beyond what words can tell,
Name of gladness, name of pleasure,
Ear and heart delighting well,
Name of sweetness passing measure,
Saving us from sin and hell.

3 'Tis the name for adoration,
'Tis the name of victory;
'Tis the name for mediation
In this vale of misery;
'Tis the name for veneration
By the citizens on high.

4 Jesus is the name exalted
Over every other name;
In this name when'er assaulted
We can put our foes to shame;
Strength to them who else had halted,
Eyes to blind and feet to lame.

5 Jesus, we thy name adoring,
Long to see Thee as Thou art,
Of thy clemency imploring,
So to write it in our heart,
That hereafter, upwards soaring,
We with angels may have part.

1 High let us swell our tune-ful notes, And join th'an-gel-ic throng;

The an-gels no such love have known As we, to wake their song.

2 Good-will to sinful man is shown,
And peace on earth is given;
For lo, th' incarnate Saviour comes
With messages from heav'n.

3 Justice and grace with sweet accord
His rising beams adorn;
Let heaven and earth in concert join,
The promised child is born.

4 Glory to God in highest strains
By highest worlds is paid;
Be glory then by us proclaimed
And by our lives displayed.

5 When shall we reach those blissful realms,
Where Christ exalted reigns,
And learn of the celestial choir
Their own immortal strains?

1 When Jor-dan hushed his wa-ters still And si-lence slept on Zi-on's hill,
When Bethlehem's shepherds thro' the night Watched o'er their flocks by star-ry light,

2 Hark, from the midnight hills around
A voice of more than mortal sound
In distant alleluias stole
Wild murm'ring o'er the raptured soul.

3 Then swift to every startled eye
New streams of glory light the sky;
Heaven bursts her azure gates to pour
Her spirits to the midnight hour.

4 On wheels of light, on wings of flame,
The glorious hosts of Zion came;

High heaven with songs of triumph rang,
While loud they struck their harps and sang.

5 He comes to cheer the trembling heart,
Bid Satan and his wiles depart;
Again the day-star gilds the gloom,
Again the bowers of Eden bloom.

6 O Zion, lift thy raptured eye,
The long expected hour is nigh;
Sing praises, with the angel host,
To Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

1 NOT by the martyr's death alone
The martyr's crown in heaven is won;
There is a triumph set on high
For bloodless fields of victory.

2 What though he was not called to feel
The cross or flame or torturing wheel,
Yet daily to the world he died,
His flesh through grace he crucified.

3 What though nor chains nor scourges sore
Nor cruel beasts his members tore,

Enough if perfect love arise
To Christ a grateful sacrifice.

And faith the wayward soul imbues,
Love, with her torchlight from the skies,

Hark, hark, to God the cho-rus breaks, From ev-ry host, from ev-ry gem;

- 2 Once on the raging seas I rode;
 The storm was loud, the night was dark;
 The ocean yawned, and rudely blowed
 The wind that tossed my foundering bark,
 Deep horror then my vitals froze,
 Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem,
 When suddenly a star arose,
 It was the star of Bethlehem.
- 3 It was my guide, my light, my all,
 It bade my dark forebodings cease;
 And through the storm and danger's thrall
 It led me to the port of peace.
 Now, safely moored, my perils o'er,
 I'll sing, first in nights diadem,
 Forever and forevermore,
 The star, the star of Bethlehem.

So, most gra-cious Lord, may we Ev-er-more be led to Thee.

But Thou wast wrapt in guile-less sleep, Calm . . . and . . still.

"Save, Lord, we per-ish," was their cry, "O save us in our ag-o-ny!"

Thy word a-bove the storm rose high, "Peace, be still." . . . . .

"TUNES FOR WORSHIP." By per.

2 The wild winds hushed; the angry deep
Sank, like a little child, to sleep;
The sullen billows ceased to leap
At thy will.

So, when our life is clouded o'er,
And storm-winds drift us from the shore,
Say, lest we sink to rise no more,
"Peace, be still."

And he who would the Fa-ther seek Must seek Him, Lord, by Thee.

2 Thou art the truth; thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind
And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the life; the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conquering arm;

And those who put their trust in Thee
Nor death nor hell shall harm.

- 2 Abide among us with thy word,
Redeemer whom we love;
Thy help and mercy here afford,
And life with Thee above.
- 3 Abide among us with thy ray,
O light that lighten'st all;
And let thy truth preserve our way,
Nor suffer us to fall.
- 4 Abide with us to bless us still,
O bounteous Lord of peace;

With grace and power our souls fulfil,

- 1 O JESUS, King most wonderful,
Thou conqueror renowned,
Spirit of grace ineffable,
In whom all joys are found,
- 2 When once Thou visitest the heart,
Then truth begins to shine,
Then earthly vanities depart,
Then wakens love divine.
- 3 O Jesus, light of all below,
Thou fount of living fire,

Surpassing all the joys we know
And all we can desire,

And ever Thee adore,
And seeking Thee, itself inflame
To seek Thee more and more.
- 5 Thee may our tongues forever bless,
Thee may we love alone,
And ever in our lives express
The image of thine own.

2 For Him shall endless prayer be made,
And endless praises crown his head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.

4 Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
The joyful prisoner bursts his chains;

The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

5 Where He displays his healing power,
Death and the curse are known no more;
In Him the tribes of Adam boast
More blessings than their father lost.

6 Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honors to our King,
Angels descend with songs again
And earth repeat the loud amen.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

1 'TIS by the faith of joys to come
We walk through deserts dark as night;
Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
Faith is our guide and faith our light.

2 The want of sight she well supplies;
She makes the pearly gates appear;
Far into distant worlds she pries,
And brings eternal glories near.

3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
While faith inspires a heavenly ray,
Though lions roar and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.

4 So Abram, by divine command,
Left his own house to walk with God;
His faith beheld the promised land,
And fired his zeal along the road.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

111

1 GOD in his earthly temples lays Foundations for his heavenly praise;
He likes the tents of Jacob well,
But still in Zion loves to dwell.

2 His mercy visits every house
That pays its night and morning vows,
But makes a more delightful stay
Where churches meet to praise and pray.

3 What glories were described of old!
What wonders are of Zion told!

Thou city of our God below,
Thy fame shall Tyre and Egypt know.

4 Egypt and Tyre and Greek and Jew
Shall there begin their lives anew;
Angels and men shall join to sing
The hill where living waters spring.

5 When God makes up his last account
Of natives in his holy mount,
'Twill be an honor to appear
As one new-born and nourished there.

1 O CHRIST, our true and only light,
Illumine those who sit in night;
Let those afar now hear thy voice,
And in thy fold with us rejoice.
2 And all who else have strayed from Thee
O gently seek; thy healing be
To every wounded conscience given,
And let them also share thy heaven.
3 O make the deaf to hear thy word,
And teach the dumb to speak, dear Lord,

Who dare not yet the faith avow,
Though secretly they hold it now.
4 Shine on the darkened and the cold,
Recall the wanderers from thy fold;
Unite those now who walk apart,
Confirm the weak and doubting heart.

Such grace with wondering thanksadore,
And endless praise to Thee be given
By all thy Church in earth and heaven.

Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you;
Ye dare not trust your own;
Put on the gospel armor,
And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls or danger
Be never wanting there.

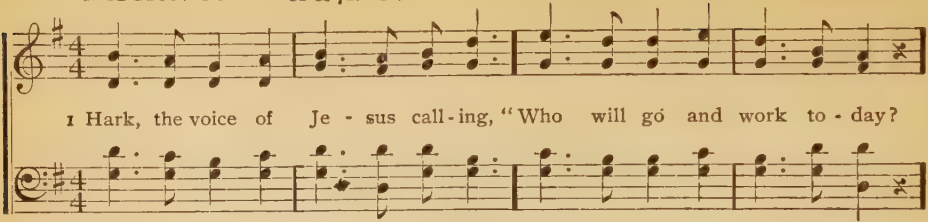

4 Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
The strife will not be long;
This day, the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song;
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glory
Shall reign eternally.

Fields are white and har - vest wait-ing, Who will bear the sheaves a - way?"

D.S.—Who will an - swer, glad - ly say - ing, "Here am I; send me, send me?"

Per. BIGLOW & MAIN.

2 If you cannot cross the ocean
And the heathen lands explore,
You can find the heathen nearer,
You can help them at your door.
If you cannot give your thousands,
You can give the widow's mite;
And the least you do for Jesus,
Will be precious in his sight.

3 If you cannot be the watchman,
Standing high on Zion's wall,
Pointing out the path to heaven,
Offering life and peace to all,

With your prayers and with your bounties
You can do what Heaven demands;
You can be like faithful Aaron,
Holding up the prophet's hands.

4 While the souls of men are dying,
And the Master calls for you,
Let none hear you idly saying,
"There is nothing I can do."
Gladly take the task He gives you,
Let his work your pleasure be;
Answer quickly when He calleth,
"Here am I, O Lord, send me."

D. March.

1 CAST thy bread upon the waters,
Thinking not 'tis thrown away;
God Himself saith, thou shalt gather
It again some future day.
Cast thy bread upon the waters,
Wildly though the billows roll;
They but aid thee as thou toilest
Truth to spread from pole to pole.

2 As the seed by billows floated
To some distant island lone,
So to human souls benighted
That thou flingest may be borne.
Cast thy bread upon the waters;
Why wilt thou still doubting stand?
Bounteous shall God send the harvest,
If thou sow'st with liberal hand.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon.
Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

153 LUTHER. P. M.

MARTIN LUTHER, 1483—1546.

A strong tow'r is the Lord our God, To shel-ter and de-fend us; Our shield his arm, our sword his rod,

A-gainst our foes be-friend us; That an-cient en-e-my, His gathering pow'r we see,

His ter-rors and his toils, Yet vic-t'ry with its spoils, Not earth, but Heav'n shall send us,

2 Though wrestling with the wrath of hell,
No might of man avail us,
Our captain is Immanuel,
And angel comrades hail us;
Still challenge ye his name,
"Christ in the flesh who came,"
"The Lord, the Lord of hosts,"
Our cause his succor boasts,
And God shall never fail us.

Nay, let them stand revealed,
And darken all the field,
We fear not, fall they must;
The word, wherein we trust,
Their triumph hath forbidden.

3 Though earth by peopling fiends be trod,
Embattled all, yet hidden,
And though their proud usurping gods
O'er thrones and shrines have stridden,

4 While mighty truth with us remains,
Hell's arts shall move us never,
Nor partings, friendships, honors, gains,
Our love from Jesus sever;
They leave us, when they part,
With Him a peaceful heart;
And when from death we rise,
Death yields us, as he dies,
The crown of life forever.

I A - las! and did my Sav - iour bleed, And did my sov - 'reign die?

Would He de - vote that sa - cred head For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I had done,
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity, grace unknown,
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide
And shut his glories in,
When God the mighty maker died
For man the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
While his dear cross appears,
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness
And melt mine eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

Isaac Watts, 1707.

1 GOD, my supporter and my hope,
My help forever near,
Thine arm of mercy held me up,
When sinking in despair.

2 Thy counsels, Lord, shall guide my feet
Through this dark wilderness,
Thy hand conduct me near thy seat,
To dwell before thy face.

3 Were I in heaven without my God,
'Twould be no joy to me;

And whilst this earth is my abode
I long for none but Thee.

4 What if the springs of life were broke,
And flesh and heart should faint?
God is my soul's eternal rock,
The strength of every saint.

5 But to draw near to Thee, my God,
'Shall be my sweet employ;
My tongue shall sound thy works abroad
And tell the world my joy.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

1 HOW oft, alas! this wretched heart
Has wandered from the Lord!
How oft my roving thoughts depart
Forgetful of his word!

2 Yet sovereign mercy calls, "Return;"
Dear Lord, and may I come?
My vile ingratitude I mourn,
O take the wanderer home.

3 And canst Thou, wilt Thou yet forgive,
And bid my crimes remove?

And shall a pardoned rebel live,
To speak thy wondrous love?

4 Almighty grace, thy healing power,
How glorious, how divine!
That can to life and bliss restore
A heart so vile as mine.

5 Thy pardoning love, so free, so sweet,
Dear Saviour, I adore;
O keep me at thy sacred feet
And let me rove no more.

- 1 ALMIGHTY God, thy word is cast
Like seed into the ground;
Now let the dews of heaven descend
And righteous growth abound.
- 2 Let not the foe of Christ and man
This holy seed remove,
But give it root in every heart,
To bring forth fruits of love.
- 3 Let not the world's deceitful cares
The rising plant destroy,

- But let it yield a hundred fold
Returns of peace and joy.
- 4 Nor let thy word, so kindly sent
To raise us to thy throne,
Go back to Thee and sadly tell
That we reject thy Son.
- 5 Oft as the precious seed is sown
Thy quickening grace bestow,
That all, whose souls the truth receive,
Its saving power may know.

- 1 WHEN wounded sore the stricken soul
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand, a piercé hand,
Can heal the sinner's wound.
- 2 When sorrow swells the laden breast
And tears of anguish flow,
One only heart, a broken heart,
Can feel the sinner's woe.
- 3 When penitence has wept in vain
Over some foul dark spot,

- One only stream, a stream of blood,
Can wash away the blot.
- 4 'Tis Jesus' blood that washes white,
His hand that brings relief,
His heart that's touched with all our joys
And feels for all our grief.
- 5 Lift up thy bleeding hand, O Lord,
Unseal that cleansing tide;
We have no shelter from our sin
But in thy wounded side,

To rid my soul of one dark blot, [spot,
To Thee, whose blood can cleanse each
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings and fears within, without,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,

Yea, all I need, in Thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

5 Just as I am Thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

6 Just as I am; thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down;
Now, to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

1 O THOU that hear'st when sinners cry,
Though all my crimes before Thee lie,
Behold me not with angry look,
But blot their memory from thy book.

2 Create my nature pure within,
And form my soul averse to sin;
Let thy good Spirit ne'er depart,
Nor hide thy presence from my heart.

3 I cannot live without thy light,
Cast out and banished from thy sight;
Thy holy joys, my God, restore,
And guard me that I fall no more.

4 Though I have grieved thy Spirit, Lord,
His help and comfort still afford;
And let a sinner seek thy throne,
To plead the merits of thy Son.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

1 BEHOLD the sin-aton-ing Lamb,
With wonder, gratitude and love;
To take away our guilt and shame,
See Him descending from above.

2 Our sins and griefs on Him were laid,
He meekly bore the mighty load;
Our ransom-price He fully paid
In groans and tears, in sweat and blood.

3 To save a guilty world He dies;
Sinners, behold the bleeding Lamb;

To Him lift up your longing eyes
And hope for mercy in his name.

4 Pardon and peace through Him abound,
He can the richest blessings give;
Salvation in his name is found,
He bids the dying sinner live.

5 Jesus, my Lord, I look to Thee;
Where else can helpless sinners go?
Thy boundless love shall set me free
From all my wretchedness and woe.

In Thee a-bund-ant grace, My shadow and my sunshine, The brightness of thy face.

Per. of Mrs. J. P. HOLBROOK.

- 2 My sins, my sins, my Saviour,
How sad on Thee they fall!
Seen through thy gentle patience,
I tenfold feel them all,
I know they are forgiven;
But still, their pain to me
Is all the grief and anguish
They laid, my Lord, on Thee.
- 3 My sins, my sins, my Saviour!
Their guilt I never knew,
Till with Thee in the desert
I near thy passion drew,

- Till with Thee in the garden
I heard thy pleading prayer,
And saw the sweat-drops bloody
That told thy sorrow there.
- 4 Therefore my songs, my Saviour,
E'en in this time of woe,

The spotless Lamb of God;

From the accursed load;

White in his blood most precious,
Till not a stain remains.
- 2 I lay my wants on Jesus;
All fulness dwells in Him;
He heals all my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem;

- I lay my griefs on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares,
He from them all releases,
He all my sorrow shares.
- 3 I rest my soul on Jesus,

His right hand me embraces,

Still support and comfort me;
All my trust on Thee is stayed,
All my help from Thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing.
- 3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in Thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick and lead the blind;

Just and holy is thy name,
I am all unrighteousness;
Vile and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

- 4 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
Grace to pardon all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within;
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of Thee;
Spring Thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

IGNACE PLEYEL, 1757—1831.

1 For-ty days and forty nights Thou wast fasting in the wild; For-ty days and for-ty nights Tempted and yet un-de-fled;

2 Sunbeams scorching all the day,
Chilly dewdrops nightly shed,
Prowling beasts about thy way,
Stones thy pillow, earth thy bed.

3 Shall we not thy sorrow share,
And from earthly joys abstain,
Fasting with unceasing prayer,
Glad with Thee to suffer pain?

4 And if Satan vexing sore
Flesh or spirit should assail,
Thou, his vanquisher before,
Grant we may not faint nor fail.

5 So shall we have peace divine,
Holier gladness ours shall be;
Round us too shall angels shine,
Such as ministered to Thee.

2 By thy helpless infant years,
By thy life of want and tears,

Turn, O turn a favoring eye,
Hear our solemn litany.

3 By the sacred griefs that wept
O'er the grave where Lazarus slept,
By the boding tears that flowed
Over Salem's loved abode,
By the anguished eye that told

From thy seat above the sky
Hear our solemn litany.

4 By thine hour of dire despair,
By thine agony of prayer,
By the the cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear and torturing scorn,
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful sacrifice,
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn litany.

5 By thy deep expiring groan,
By the sad sepulchral stone,
By the vault whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God,
O from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty, re-ascended Lord,
Listen, listen to the cry
Of our solemn litany.

2 I have scorned the Son of God,
Trampled on his precious blood,
Would not harken to his calls,
Grieved Him by a thousand falls.

3 Lord, incline me to repent;
Let me now my fall lament,

Deeply my revolt deplore,
Weep, believe, and sin no more.

Shows his wounds and spreads his hands;
God is love, I know, I feel;
Jesus weeps, and loves me still.

DEVEREUX. Arr. by GEORGE KINGSLEY, 1839.

2 And yet, O God, no plaintive sobs
From Thee can pardon win,
Unless the heart be moved with grief
And penitent for sin.

3 With Thee avail not smitten breast,
Sad face, and garments rent,
Unless the contrite soul be sad
And all its guilt lament.

4 With tears that speak a mourning heart,
We Thee entreat, O God,

From us thine anger turn away,
And stay th'avenging rod.

5 Thou art a righteous Judge, O deign
To spare the bruised reed;
We pray for time to turn again,
For grace to turn indeed.

6 Blest Trinity in Unity,
Vouchsafe us, in thy love,
To gather from these fasts below
Immortal fruit above.

Latin Hymn. Tr. by J. Chandler.

I love Thee, O most gra - cious Lord, Not that Thou

Those lov - ing not to end - less gloom, Those lov - ing not to end - less gloom.

Per. of BIGLOW & MAIN.

2 Thou, Thou, my Jesus, full of grace,
Didst me upon the cross embrace,
Didst bear the nails, the bloody spear,
The great disgrace, the rabble's jeer.

3 Innumerable griefs were thine,
Great sweats and anguish, Lord of mine;
The pangs of death, and all for me,
That I, poor wretch, might come to Thee.

4 Then why not love with all my heart?
O Jesus, most beloved Thou art;
Not that Thou sav'st my soul above,
Nor me condemn'st, do I Thee love,

5 Not for the hope of sure reward,
But for thy love, O blessed Lord;
My love is thine and e'er shall be,

Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish, Earth has no sor-row that heav'n cannot heal.

- 2 Joy of the comfortless, light of the straying,
Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure,
Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure.
- 3 Here see the bread of life, see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
Come to the feast of love, come, ever knowing
Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

Ere the hour of doom appears.
- 3 Lord, on us thy Spirit pour,
Kneeling lowly at thy door,
Ere it close forevermore.

By thy supplicating cry,
By thy willingness to die,
- 5 By thy tears of bitter woe
For Jerusalem below,
Let us not thy love forego.
- 6 Judge and Saviour of our race,

Grant us 'neath thy wings a place.

And that love will then be known

On Thee, when waves of trouble roll, My fainting hope relies.

2 To Thee, I tell each rising grief,
For Thou alone canst heal;
Thy word can bring a sweet relief
For every pain I feel.

3 But O when gloomy doubts prevail,
I fear to call thee mine;
The springs of comfort seem to fail
And all my hopes decline.

4 Hast Thou not bid me seek thy face?
And shall I seek in vain?

And can the ear of sovereign grace
Be deaf when I complain?

5 No; still the ear of sovereign grace
Attends the mourner's prayer;
O may I ever find access
To breathe my sorrows there!

6 Thy mercy-seat is open still,
Here let my soul retreat,
With humble hope attend thy will,
And wait beneath thy feet.

Anne Steele, 1760.

I Dear Fa - ther, to thy mer - cy - seat My soul for shel - ter flies;

'Tis here I find a safe re - treat When storms and tem - pests rise.

- 2 My cheerful hope can never die,
If Thou, my God, art near;
Thy grace can raise my comforts high
And banish every fear.
- 3 My great protector and my Lord,
Thy constant aid impart;

- O let thy kind, thy gracious word
Sustain my trembling heart.
- 4 O never let my soul remove
From this divine retreat;
Still let me trust thy power and love
And dwell beneath thy feet.

- 1 PROSTRATE, dear Jesus, at thy feet
A guilty rebel lies,
And upward to thy mercy-seat
Presumes to lift his eyes.
- 2 If tears of sorrow would suffice
To pay the debt I owe,
Tears should from both my weeping eyes
In ceaseless torrents flow.

- 3 But no such sacrifice I plead
To expiate my guilt,
No tears, but those which Thou hast shed,
No blood, but Thou hast spilt.
- 4 Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord,
And all my sins forgive;
Justice will well approve the word
That bids the sinner live.

Samuel Stennett, 1787.

- 1 BLEST Jesus, when my soaring thoughts
O'er all thy graces rove,
How is my soul in transport lost,
In wonder, joy and love!
- 2 Not softest strains can charm my ears
Like thy beloved name,
Nor aught beneath the skies inspire
My heart with equal flame.
- 3 Where'er I look my wondering eyes
Unnumbered blessings see;

- But what is life, with all its bliss,
If once compared with Thee?
- 4 Hast Thou a rival in my breast?
Search, Lord, for Thou canst tell
If aught can raise my passions thus,
Or please my soul so well.
- 5 No; Thou art precious to my heart,
My portion and my joy;
Forever let thy boundless grace
My sweetest thoughts employ.

Arr. by SCHWING. GERMAN CHORAL.

1 I will love Thee,—all my treasure, I will love Thee,—all my strength; I will love Thee, without measure,

And will love Thee right at length; O I will love Thee, light divine, Till I die and call Thee mine.

2 I will praise Thee, sun of glory,
For thy beams have gladness brought;
I will praise thee, will adore Thee,
For the light I vainly sought;
Will praise Thee that thy words so blest
Spake my sin-sick soul to rest.

3 In thy footsteps now uphold me,
That I stumble not nor stray;
When the narrow way is told me,
Never let me lingering stay,
But come, my weary soul to cheer,
Shine, eternal sunbeam, here.

4 Be my heart more warmly glowing,
Sweet and calm the tears I shed;
And its love, its ardor showing,
Let my spirit onward tread;
Still near to Thee and nearer still,
Draw this heart, this mind, this will.

5 I will love in joy and sorrow,
Crowning joy, will love Thee well;
I will love to-day, to-morrow,
While I in this body dwell;
O I will love thee, light divine,
Till I die and find Thee mine.

1 Hail, my ev-er bless-ed Je-sus, On-ly Thee I wish to sing; To my soul thy name is precious, Thou my Prophet, Priest and King.

2 O what mercy flows from heaven,
O what joy and happiness!
Love I much? I've much forgiven,
I'm a miracle of grace.

3 Once, with Adam's race in ruin,
Unconcerned in sin I lay,
Swift destruction still pursuing,
Till my Saviour passed that way.

4 Witness, all ye hosts of heaven,
My Redeemer's tenderness;

Love I much? I've much forgiven,
I'm a miracle of grace.

5 Shout, ye bright angelic choir,
Praise the Lamb enthroned above,
While astonished I admire
God's free grace and boundless love.

Filled my soul with joy and peace;
Love I much? I've much forgiven,

1 Rock of A - ges, cleft for me, Let me hide my-self in Thee, Let the wa - ter and the blood,

From thy riven side which flow'd, Be of sin the double cure, Cleanse me from its guilt and pow'r.

- 2 Not the labors of my hands
Can fulfil thy law's demands;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears forever flow,
All for sin could not atone,
Thou must save and Thou alone.

- 3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to Thee for dress,

Helpless, look to Thee for grace;
Foul, I to the fountain fly,
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

- 4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When mine eyelids close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See Thee on thy judgment-throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee.

1 To Christ, the Prince of Peace And Son of God, we sing;

To Him who saved us by his love, Let ho - ly an - thems ring.

2 Deep in his heart for us
The wound of love He bore,
That love which still He kindles in
The hearts that Him adore.

4 O fount of endless life,
O spring of water clear,
O flame celestial, cleansing all
Who unto Thee draw near,

3 O Jesus, victim blest,
What else but love divine
Could Thee constrain to open thus
That sacred heart of thine?

5 Hide me in thy dear heart,
For thither do I fly; [death
There seek thy grace through life, in Thine immortality.

1 There is a foun - tain fill'd with blood, Drawn from Im-man-uel's veins, And sin - ners, plung'd beneath that flood, Lose all their guilty stains, Lose all their guilt-y stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.

4 E'er since by faith I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme
And shall be till I die.

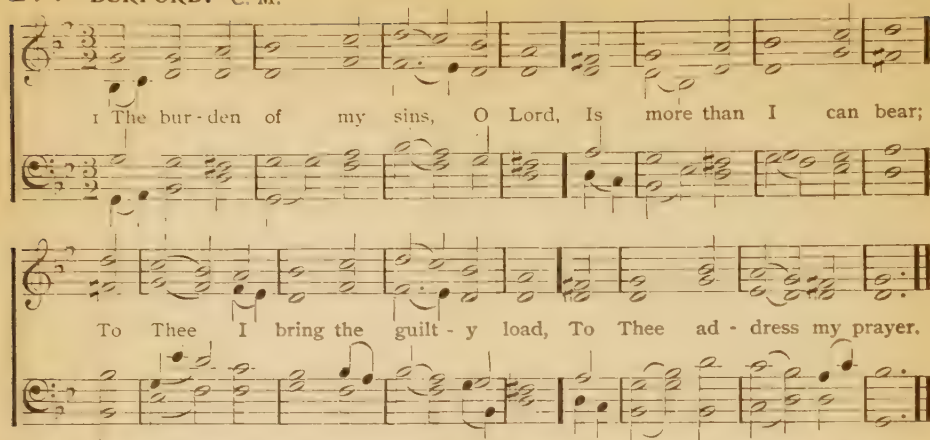

3 Dear, dying Lamb, thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved to sin no more.

5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song
I'll sing thy power to save, [tongue

I Must Je - sus bear the cross a - lone, And all the world go free?
No; there's a cross for ev - 'ry one, And there's a cross for me.

2 How happy are the saints above,
Who once went sorrowing here!
But now they taste unmingled love
And joy without a tear.

3 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
Till death shall set me free,
And then go home my crown to wear,
For there's a crown for me.

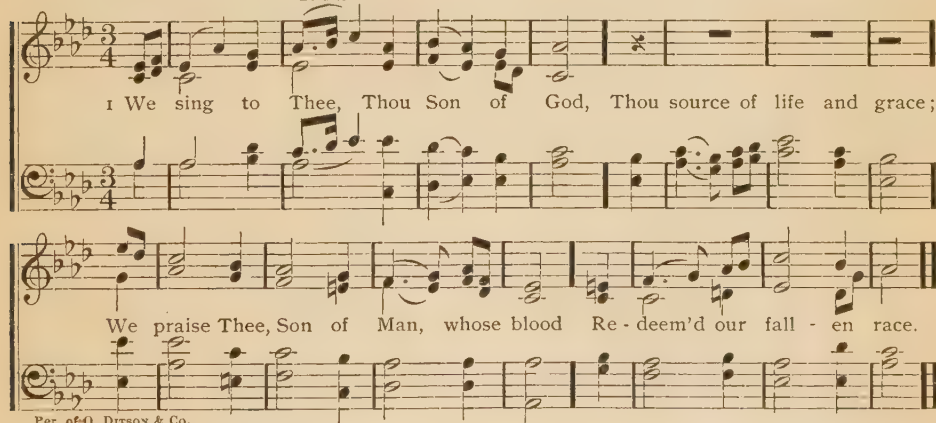

4 Upon the crystal pavement, down
At Jesus' piercéd feet,
Joyful I'll cast my golden crown
And his dear name repeat.

5 O precious cross! O glorious crown!
O resurrection day!
Ye angels, from the stars come down
And bear my soul away.

I We sing to Thee, Thou Son of God, Thou source of life and grace;
We praise Thee, Son of Man, whose blood Re - deem'd our fall - en race.

Per. of O. Ditson & Co.

2 Thee we acknowledge God and Lord,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Who art by heaven and earth adored,
Worthy o'er both to reign.

3 To Thee all angels cry aloud,
Through heaven's extended coasts,
Hail, holy, holy, holy Lord
Of glory and of hosts.

4 The prophets' goodly fellowship,
In radiant garments dressed,
Praise Thee, Thou Son of God, and reap
The fulness of thy rest.

5 Th' apostles' glorious company
Thy righteous praise proclaim;
The martyred army glorify
Thine everlasting name.

6 Throughout the world thy churches join
To call on Thee, their Head,
Brightness of majesty divine,
Who every power hast made.

7 Among their number, Lord, we love
To sing thy precious blood;
Reign here and in the worlds above,
Thou holy Lamb of God.

1 Glory be to Je-sus, Who in bitter pains Pour'd for me the life-blood From his sacred veins.

- 2 Grace and life eternal
In that blood I find,
Blest be his compassion,
Infinitely kind.
- 3 Blest through endless ages
Be the precious stream
Which from endless torments
Did the world redeem.
- 4 Abel's blood for vengeance
Pleaded to the skies,
But the blood of Jesus
For our pardon cries.

- 5 Oft as it is sprinkled
On our guilty hearts,
Satan in confusion
Terror-struck departs.
- 6 Oft as earth exulting
Wafts its praise on high,
Angel hosts rejoicing
Make their glad reply.

Swell the mighty flood,
And with saints and angels
Praise the precious blood.

- 1 O LORD, the wilderness to me
A very Paradise shall be,
Since Thou for forty days wast there
In fasting, solitude and prayer.
- 2 Unworthy though these feet to rest
On ground thy footsteps once have blest,
The way of sorrows shall be mine,
Made sweet because it first was thine.
- 3 Lord, let me find some lowly place
Where I may seek thy pitying face,
And plead with Thee by Olivet,
By agony and bloody sweat.
- 4 Some quiet isle or dim recess
Shall make for me a wilderness;
And surely angels shall be there
To wait on penitence and prayer.
- 5 Nor is this all, for I would know
The depth of shame, the crown of woe,
Stand by the stricken mother's side
While Thou art mocked and crucified.
- 6 And then in hours of saddest gloom
I still will watch around thy tomb,
Till with the day new joy be born,
And Thou shalt rise on Easter morn.
- 7 O blessed thought, that faith can see
In every altar Calvary,
Find there the loving arms outspread,
And fall before the fallen Head.

The bride awaits the day all bright,
When she shall lift, her mourning o'er,
The shout of paschal joy once more.

In love of Thee and scorn of self,
O may we count the world as loss.
- 2 When we behold thy bleeding wounds,
And the rough way that Thou hast trod,
Make us to hate the load of sin
That lay so heavy on our God.
- 3 O holy Lord, uplifted high
With outstretched arms, in mortal woe,
Embracing in thy wondrous love
The sinful world that lies below,
- 4 Give us an ever-living faith
To gaze beyond the things we see;
And, in the mystery of thy death,
Draw us and all men unto Thee.

Only in Thee abiding

1 RESTING from his work to-day,

O come, to- geth - er let us mourn; Je - sus, our Lord, is cru - ci - fied. A - men.

2 Have we no tears to shed for Him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride?
Ah! look how patiently He hangs;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

For mercy on the souls of men;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

3 Seven times He spake, seven words of love,
And all three hours his silence cried

4 A broken heart, a fount of tears,
Ask, and they will not be denied;
Lord Jesus, may we love and weep,
Since Thou for us art crucified.

2 Fierce and deadly was the anguish

Bruised and crushed the serpent's head.

3 Close and still the tomb that holds Him,
While in brief repose he lies;
Deep the slumber that enfolds Him,

Veiled awhile from mortal eyes,
Slumber such as needs must be
After hard-won victory.

4 All night long with plaintive voicing
Chant his requiem soft and low;
Loftier strains of loud rejoicing
From to-morrow's harps shall flow;
Death and hell at length are slain,
Christ hath triumphed, Christ doth reign.

A. NEVIN.

1 The Lord of life is risen, Sing, Easter heralds, sing; He bursts his rocky prison, Wide let the triumph ring.

In death no longer lying, He rose, the Prince, to-day; Life of the dead and dying, He triumph'd o'er decay. Amen.

Per. of Miss A. NEVIN.

- 2 The Lord of life is risen,
And love no longer grieves;
In ruin lies death's prison,
Sing, heralds, Jesus lives.
We hear thy blessed greeting,
Salvation's work is done,
We worship Thee, repeating,
"Life for the dead is won."
- 3 Around thy tomb, O Jesus,
How sweet the Easter breath!
Hear we not in the breezes,
"Where is thy sting, O death?"
Dark hell flies in commotion,
The heavens their anthems sing,
While far o'er earth and ocean
Glad hallelujahs ring.

- 4 O publish this salvation,
Ye heralds, through the earth,
To every buried nation
Proclaim the day of birth;
Till, rising from their slumbers
In long and ancient night,
The countless heathen numbers
Shall hail the Easter light.
- 5 Hail, hail, our Jesus risen!
Sing, ransomed brethren, sing;
Through death's dark, gloomy prison
Let Easter chorals ring.
Haste, haste, ye captive legions,
Accept your glad reprieve;
Come forth from sin's dark regions,
In Jesus' kingdom live.

Louder notes of joyful praise;

In long triumph through the sky,
Up to waiting worlds on high.

Mighty conqueror, through them ride;

Boundless empire is thine own.

Sing and sweep your golden lyres;
Sons of men, in humbler strain
Sing your mighty Saviour's reign.

Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe;
Praise we Christ whose blood was shed,
Paschal victim, paschal bread;
With sincerity and love
Eat we manna from above.

3 Mighty victim from the sky,
Hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie;
Thou hast conquered in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light;

Now no more can death appal,
Now no more the grave enthrall;
Thou hast opened Paradise,
And in Thee thy saints shall rise.

Sin alone can this destroy;
From sin's power do Thou set free
Souls new-born, O Lord, in Thee;

2 Lo, the angelic bands

From realms of day to Jesus' tomb.

3 Then back to heaven they fly
And the glad tidings bear;
Hark, as they soar on high,
What music fills the air!
Their anthems say, "Jesus, who bled,

1 The Lord is my Shepherd, no want shall I know; I feed in green pastures, safe folded I rest;

He leadeth my soul where the still waters flow, Restores me when wand'ring, redeems when oppress'd.

- 2 Through the valley and shadow of death though I stray,
 Since Thou art my guardian no evil I fear;
 Thy rod shall defend me, thy staff be my stay,
 No harm can befall with my comforter near.
- 4 With perfume and oil Thou anointest my head,
 O what shall I ask of thy providence more?
- 4 Let goodness and mercy, my bountiful God,
 Still follow my steps till I meet Thee above;
- 3 In the midst of affliction my table is spread,
 With blessings unmeasured my cup runneth o'er,
- I seek, by the path which my forefathers trod
 Through the land of their sojourn, thy kingdom of love.

- 1 THOUGH faint, yet pursuing, we go 3 Into his green pastures our footsteps on our way, He leads,
 The Lord is our leader, his word is our stay;
 His flock in the desert how kindly He feeds!
 Though suffering and sorrow and trial be near,
 The lambs in his bosom He tenderly bears,
 The Lord is our refuge and whom can we fear? And brings back the wanderers all safe from the snares.
- 2 He raiseth the fallen, He cheereth the faint;
 The weak and oppressed, He will hear their complaint;
 The way may be weary, and thorny the road,
 But how can we falter? Our help is in God.
- 4 Though clouds may surround us, our God is our light;
 Though storms rage around us, our God is our might;
 So, faint yet pursuing, still onward we come,
 The Lord is our leader, his kingdom our home.

1 Ho-san-na to the Prince of light, Who cloth'd Himself in clay, Entered the i - ron gates of death And tore the bars a-way, And tore the bars away, And tore the bars a - way.

- 2 Death is no more the king of dread,
Since our Immanuel rose;
He took the tyrant's sting away
And vanquished all our foes.
- 3 See how the conq'ror mounts aloft
And to his Father flies,
With scars of honor in his flesh
And triumph in his eyes.
- 4 Raise your devotion, mortal tongues,
To reach his blessed abode;
Sweet be the accents of your songs
To our incarnate God.
- 5 Bright angels, strike your loudest strings,
Your sweetest voices raise;
Let heaven and all created things
Sound our Immanuel's praise.

1 The head that once was crown'd with thorns Is crown'd with glory now; A roy - al di - a -

- 2 The highest place that heaven affords
Is his, is his by right,
The King of kings and Lord of lords,
And heaven's eternal light,
- 3 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below,
To whom He manifests his love
And grants his name to know.
- 4 To them the cross with all its shame,
With all its grace, is given;
- 5 Their name, an everlasting name,
Their joy, the joy of heaven.
- 5 They suffer with their Lord below,
They reign with Him above;
Their profit and their joy, to know
The myst'ry of his love.
- 6 The cross He bore is life and health,
Though shame and death to Him,
His people's hope, his people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.

2 One privilege my heart desires,
O grant me an abode
Among the churches of thy saints,
The temples of my God.

4 When troubles rise and storms appear,
There may his children hide;
God has a strong pavilion, where
He makes my soul abide.

3 There shall I offer my requests
And see thy beauty still,
Shall hear thy messages of love
And there inquire thy will.

5 Now shall my head be lifted high
Above my foes around,
And songs of joy and victory
Within thy temple sound.

Isaac Watts, 1719.

1 JESUS, my Lord, how rich thy grace,
Thy bounties how complete!
How shall we count the matchless sum,
How pay the mighty debt?

2 High on a throne of radiant light
Dost Thou exalted shine;
What can our poverty bestow,
When all the worlds are thine?

3 But Thou hast brethren here below,
The partners of thy grace,

And wilt confess their humble names
Before thy Father's face.

4 In them Thou mayst be clothed and fed
And visited and cheered;
And in their accents of distress
Our Saviour's voice is heard.

5 Thy face, with reverence and with love,
We in thy poor would see;
O may we minister to them,
And in them, Lord, to Thee.

1 IF Christ is mine, then all is mine,
And more than angels know,
Both present things and things to come
And grace and glory too.

2 If Christ is mine, let friends forsake,
And earthly comforts flee;
He, the full source of every good,
Is more than all to me.

3 If Christ is mine, unharmed I pass
Through death's dark dismal vale;
He'll be my comfort and my stay,
When heart and flesh shall fail.

4 O Christ, assure me Thou art mine,
I nothing want beside;
My soul shall at the fountain live,
When all the streams are dried.

Joy-ful al-le-lu-ias sing, And the por-tals high are lift-ed To receive their heav'nly King.

2 Who is this that comes in glory
With the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies,
He has gained the victory;
He who on the cross did suffer,
He who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death has spoiled his foes.

3 Thou hast raised our human nature
In the clouds to God's right hand;
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with Thee in glory stand;
Jesus reigns, adored by angels,
Man with God is on the throne;
Mighty Lord, in thine ascension
We by faith behold our own.

Christopher Wordsworth, 1863.

1 CHRIST, above all glory seated,
King triumphant, strong to save,
Dying, Thou hast death defeated,
Buried, Thou hast spoiled the grave.
Thou art gone where now is given
What no mortal might could gain,
On th'eternal throne of heaven
In thy Father's power to reign.

2 There thy kingdoms all adore Thee,
Heaven above and earth below,
While the depths of hell before Thee
Trembling and amazed bow.

We, O Lord, with hearts adoring
Follow Thee beyond the sky;
Hear our prayers thy grace imploring,
Lift our souls to Thee on high.

3 So, when Thou again in glory
On the clouds of heaven shalt shine,
We thy flock may stand before Thee,
Owned forevermore as thine.
Hail, all hail, in Thee confiding,
Jesus, Thee shall all adore,
In thy Father's might abiding
With one Spirit evermore.

Star answering to star:

And now their palms they wave,
Brought safely home."

1 LET us awake our joys,

2 Proclaim abroad his name,
Tell of his matchless fame,
What wonders done;
Above, beneath, around,
Let all the earth resound,
Till heaven's high arch rebound,
"Vict'ry is won."

3 He vanquished sin and hell,
And our last foe will quell;
Mourners, rejoice,
His dying love adore;
Praise Him, now raised in power,
Praise Him forevermore
With joyful voice.
4 All hail the glorious day,

- 1 OUR Lord is risen from the dead,
Our Jesus is gone up on high;
The pow'rs of hell are captive led,
Dragged to the portals of the sky.

And angels chant the solemn lay:
"Lift up your heads, ye heav'nly gates,

Per. of U. C. BURNAP.

2 Thou art gone up on high,
But Thou didst first come down
Through earth's most bitter misery
To pass unto thy crown;
And girt with grief and fears
Our onward course must be,
But only let this path of tears
Lead us at last to Thee.

3 Thou art gone up on high,
But Thou shalt come again
With all the bright ones of the sky
Attendant in thy train.
Lord, by thy saving power
So make us live and die,
That we may stand in that dread hour
At thy right hand on high.

Emma Toke, 1851.

2 Legions of angels round his throne
In countless armies shine;
At his right hand with golden harps
They offer songs divine.

3 "Hail, glorious Prince of Peace," they cry,
"Whose unexampled love
Moved Thee to quit those blissful realms
And royalties above."

4 Through all his travels here below
They did his steps attend,

Oft wondering how or where at last
This mystic scene would end.

5 They saw his heart transfixed with wounds,
And viewed the crimson gore;
They saw Him break the bars of death,
Which none e'er broke before.

6 They brought his chariot from above,
To bear Him to his throne, [cried,
Clapped their triumphant wings and
"The glorious work is done."

Dan'l Turner and James Fanch, 1776.

1 THE golden gates are lifted up,
The doors are opened wide,

2 Thou art gone up before us, Lord,
To make for us a place,
That we may be where now Thou art
And look upon God's face.

3 And ever on our earthly path
A gleam of glory lies,

A light still breaks behind the cloud
That veiled Thee from our eyes.

4 Lift up our hearts, lift up our minds,
Let thy dear grace be given,
That while we wander here below
Our treasure be in heaven,

Harvest-home of souls they keep;
With his sickle each apostle
Whitening fields goes forth to reap;
God with holy flame from heaven
Writes on hearts the law of love;
Jubilee of sins forgiven
Sounds its trumpet from above.

3 Holy Ghost, divine Creator,
Who didst on the waters move,
Holy Ghost, regenerator,
Author of all life and love,
Holy Ghost, illuminator,
Who didst then with fire baptize,
Holy Ghost, great renovator,
Come, the world evangelize.

4 With the kneeling congregation,
Thou art in the house of prayer;
Laver of regeneration
Is o'ershadowed by Thee there.

Thou dost shed at confirmation
From thy wing a gift of grace;
Eucharistic celebration
Has revealings of thy face.

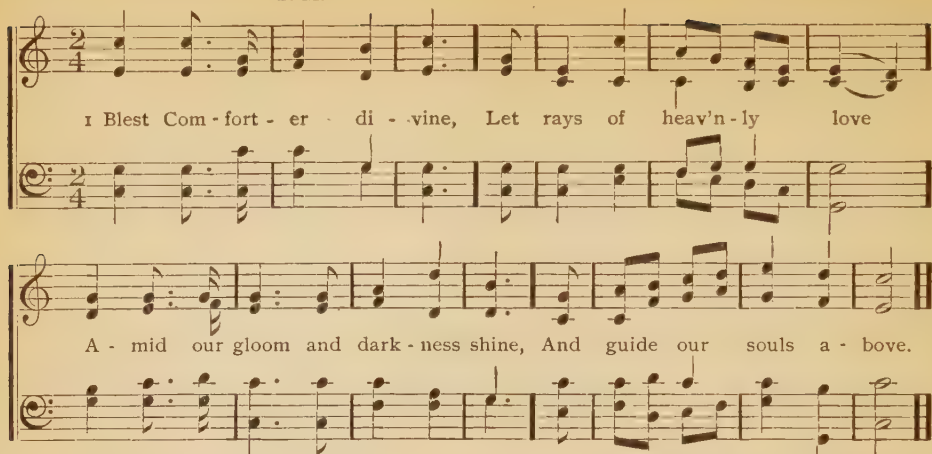

5 Strengthen, warm and purify us,
From the bands of sin release,
Comfort, counsel, sanctify us,
Give us love and joy and peace;
Patience, faith and resignation
Breathe upon us with thy breath,
Give us heavenly consolaton
In the solemn hour of death.

6 So when earth with fruit aboundeth,
And shall angel reapers see,
And the great archangel soundeth
God's eternal jubilee,
We may join their gratulation;
To the Father and the Son,
And the Spirit adoration
Ever be, blest Three in One.

Thee, O God, we hum-bly praise, Thee as Lord and King con-fess-ing;

All the earth its hom-age pays, Hon-or, pow-er, glo-ry, bless-ing,

Ev-er giv-eth un-to Thee, Fa-ther of e-ter-ni-ty.

- 2 All the angels join the hymn,
All the powers of heav'n replying,
Cherubim to seraphim,
With unwearied voices crying,
Holy, holy, holy Lord,
God of hosts, be Thou adored.
- 3 Thee, th' apostles' glorious choir,
Prophets ranked in goodly number,
Martyrs robed in white attire,
Praise, and never sleep nor slumber;
Loud their hallelujahs rise,
Rolling through the vaulted skies.
- 4 Father, Thee the Church doth own,
Wide through every land and nation,
With thy true and only Son,
Worthy of all adoration,
And the Holy Spirit, her
Everlasting Comforter.
- 5 King, O Christ, ere time began
In the Father's glory reigning,
Thou, to rescue fallen man,
Neither birth nor death disdaining,
Hast to all believers giv'n
Entrance through the gate of heaven.
- 6 Seated now at God's right hand,
Thou shalt come as Judge; before Thee
When the quick and dead shall stand
Help thy servants, we implore Thee;
Make them with thy saints to shine,
In eternal glory thine.
- 7 Save thy people, Lord, we pray,
Bless thy heritage forever,
Rule and lift them up alway;
Thee we magnify and never
Cease to praise thy holy name,
Through all ages still the same.
- 8 Lord, this day from every ill
Guard us till the evening closes;
Lord, have mercy on us still,
As in Thee our hope reposes;
All my trust is stayed on Thee,
Let me ne'er confounded be.

By all thy heav'n - ly host a - dored, By all thy Church be - low.

2 One undivided Trinity
With triumph we proclaim;

3 Thee, holy Father, we confess,
Thee, holy Son, adore,
Thee, Spirit of truth and holiness,
We worship evermore.

4 Three persons equally divine
We magnify and love,
And both the choirs ere long shall join
To sing thy praise above.

In thine own mysterious sentence,
"Ye have done it unto me;"
Give us faith to trust Thee boldly,
Hope, to stay our souls on Thee;
But, O best of all thy graces,
Give us thine own charity.

1 Is thy cruse of com - fort fail - ing? Rise and share it with an - oth - er,

And thro' all the years of fam - ine It shall serve thee and thy broth - er.

Love di - vine will fill thy store-house, Or thy hand - ful still re - new;

Scan - ty fare for one will oft - en Make a roy - al feast for two.

- 2 For the heart grows rich in giving;
All its wealth is living grain;
Seeds which mildew in the garner,
Scattered, fill with gold the plain.
Is thy burden hard and heavy?
Do thy steps drag wearily?
Hear to bear thy brother's burden,
God will bear both it and thee.
- 3 Numb and weary on the mountains,
Would'st thou sleep amidst the snow?
Chafe that frozen form beside thee,
And together both shall glow.

Art thou stricken in life's battle?
Many wounded round thee moan;
Lavish on their wounds thy balsams,
And that balm shall heal thine own.

- 4 Is the heart a well left empty?
None but God its void can fill;
Nothing but a ceaseless fountain
Can its ceaseless longings still.
Is the heart a living power?
Self-entwined its strength sinks low;
It can only live in loving,
And by serving love will grow.

Elizabeth Charles.

2 O may we love each other, Lord,
As we are loved of Thee;
For none are truly born of God
Who live in enmity.

3 Heirs of the same immortal bliss,
Our hopes and fears the same,

The cords of love our hearts should bind,
The law of love inflame.

4 So shall the vain contentious world
Our peaceful lives approve,
And wondering say, as they of old,
"See how the Christians love."

Thomas Cotterill.

349

1 FATHER of mercies, send thy grace
All powerful from above,
To form in our obedient souls
The image of thy love.

2 O may our sympathizing breast
That generous pleasure know,
Freely to share in others' joy,
And weep for others' woe.

3 Whene'er the helpless sons of grief
In low distress are laid,

Soft be our hearts their pains to feel
And swift our hands to aid.

4 So Jesus looked on dying men,
Enthroned above the skies,
And when He saw their lost estate
Felt his compassion rise.

5 Since Christ, to save our guilty souls,
On wings of mercy flew,
We, whom the Saviour thus hath loved,
Should love each other too.

Philip Doddridge, 1740.

1 DO not I love Thee, O my Lord?
Behold my heart and see,
And turn the dearest idol out
That dares to rival Thee.

2 Is not thy name melodious still
To mine attentive ear?
Doth not each pulse with pleasure bound,
My Saviour's voice to hear?

3 Hast Thou a lamb in all thy flock
I would disdain to feed?

Hast Thou a foe before whose face
I fear thy cause to plead?

4 Would not my heart pour forth its blood
In honor of thy name?
And challenge the cold hand of death
To damp th' immortal flame?

5 Thou know'st I love Thee, dearest Lord;
But O I long to soar
Far from the sphere of mortal joys,
And learn to love Thee more.

glo-ries crown'd, His lips with grace o'er-flow, His lips with grace o'er-flow.

- 2 No mortal can with Him compare
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is He than all the fair
That fill the heav'nly train.
3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
He flew to my relief;
For me He bore the shameful cross
And carried all my grief.
4 To Him I owe my life and breath
And all the joys I have;

- He makes me triumph over death
And saves me from the grave.
5 To heaven, the place of his abode,
He brings my weary feet,
Shows me the glories of my God,
And makes my joys complete.
6 Since from his bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord, they should all be thine.

- 2 Thou, O my Jesus, Thou didst me
Upon the cross embrace,
For me didst bear the nails and spear
And manifold disgrace,
3 And griefs and torments numberless
And sweat of agony,
Yea, death itself, and all for me
Who was thine enemy.
4 Then why, O blessed Jesus Christ,
Should I not love Thee well?

- Not for the hope of winning heaven
Nor of escaping hell,
5 Not with the hope of gaining aught,
Not seeking a reward,
But as Thyself hast lovéd me,
O ever-loving Lord,
6 So would I love Thee, dearest Lord,
And in thy praise will sing,
Solely because Thou art my God
And my eternal King.

Welcome to the Saviour's breast;
Nothing brought Him from above,
Nothing but redeeming love.

Who suffer and who weep with Thee.

4 Infinite Majesty above,

Beneath the chast'ning rod,
But in the hour of grief or pain
Will lean upon its God;

3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without;

That when in danger knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt;

4 A faith that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last hour is fled,
And with a pure and heav'nly ray
Lights up a dying bed.

5 Lord, give us such a faith as this;
And then, whate'er may come, [bliss
We'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed
Of an eternal home.

1 LORD, I believe; thy power I own,
Thy word I would obey;
I wander comfortless and lone,
When from thy truth I stray.

2 Lord, I believe; but gloomy fears
Sometimes bedim my sight;
I look to Thee with prayers and tears,
And cry for strength and light.

3 Lord, I believe; but oft I know
My faith is cold and weak;
My weakness strengthen, and bestow
The confidence I seek.

4 Yes, I believe; and only Thou
Canst give my soul relief;
Lord, to thy truth my spirit bow,
"Help Thou mine unbelief."

1 When gath'ring clouds around I view, And days are dark and friends are few, On Him I lean who not in vain

Ex-perienced ev-ry human pain; He sees my wants, allays my fears, And counts and treasures up my tears.

- 2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
From heav'nly wisdom's narrow way,
To fly the good I would pursue
Or do the sin I would not do,
Still He who felt temptation's power
Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.
- 3 When sorrowing o'er some stone I bend,
Which covers what was once a friend,
And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
Divides me for a little while,
Thou, Saviour, mark'st the tears I shed,
For Thou didst weep o'er Lazarus dead.
- 4 And O when I have safely passed
Through every conflict but the last,
Still, still unchanging, watch beside
My painful bed, for Thou hast died;
Then point to realms of cloudless day,
And wipe the latest tear away.

- 1 AS oft with worn and weary feet
We tread earth's rugged valley o'er,
The thought how comforting and sweet,
Christ trod this very path before;
Our wants and weaknesses He knows,
From life's first dawning till its close.
- 2 Do sickness, feebleness or pain
Or sorrow in our path appear,
The recollection will remain,
More deeply did He suffer here;
His life, how truly sad and brief,
Filled up with suffering and with grief!
- 3 If Satan tempt our hearts to stray
And whisper evil things within,
So did he in the desert way
Assail our Lord with thoughts of sin,
When worn and in the feeble hour
The tempter came with all his power.
- 4 Just such as I, this earth He trod,
With every human ill but sin;
And though indeed the Son of God,
As I am now, so He has been.
My God, my Saviour, look on me
With pity, love and sympathy.

So let thy life our pat - tern be, And form our souls for heav'n.

Trinity Season.—Assurance.

- 2 Help us through good report and ill
Our daily cross to bear,
Like Thee, to do'our Father's will,
Our brethren's griefs to share.
- 3 Let grace our selfishness expel,
Our earthliness refine,
And kindness in our bosoms dwell,
As free and true as thine.
- 4 If joy shall at thy bidding fly
And grief's dark day come on,

- We in our turn would meekly cry,
Father, thy will be done.
- 5 Should friends misjudge or foes defame,
Or brethren faithless prove,
Then, like thine own, be all our aim
To conquer them by love.
- 6 Kept peaceful in the midst of strife.
Forgiving and forgiven,
O may we lead the pilgrim's life
And follow Thee to heaven.

- 1 SOVEREIGN of all the worlds on high,
Allow my humble claim;
Nor, while a worm would raise its head,
Disdain a Father's name.
- 2 My Father, God, how sweet the sound,
How tender and how dear!
Not all the harmony of heav'n
Could so delight the ear.

- 3 Come, sacred Spirit, seal the name
On my expanding heart,
And show that in Jehovah's grace
I share a filial part.

Unwav'ring, I believe,

And lift my heart to Thee;
Thy pard'ning grace, O God, command,
Be merciful to me.

O'erwhelmed with agony;
O save my soul by sin oppressed,
Be merciful to me.

- 3 My guilt, my shame, I all confess,
I have no hope nor plea
But Jesus' blood and righteousness,
Be merciful to me.

Nor from its shelter flee,
Till Thou, O God, in mercy great,
Art merciful to me.

1 Fa-ther, whate'er of earth-ly bliss Thy sov-'reign will de-nies,

Ac-cept-ed at thy throne of grace, Let this pe-ti-tion rise:

From every murmur free;
The blessings of thy grace impart
And let me live to Thee.

My path of life attend,

1 Ye servants of God, your Master pro-claim, And publish a - broad his wonderful name;
The name all-vic - to-rious of Je-sus ex - tol; His kingdom is glorious, He rules o-ver all.

- 2 God ruleth on high, almighty to save,
And still He is nigh, his presence we have;
The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus our King.
- 3 Salvation to God, who sits on the throne,
Let all cry aloud and honor the Son;
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.
- 4 Then let us adore and give Him his right,
All glory and power and wisdom and might,
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing and infinite love.

C. Wesley, 1744

- 1 O WORSHIP the King, all-glorious above,
And gratefully sing his power and his love,
Our shield and defender, the Ancient of Days,
Pavilioned in splendor and girded with praise.
- 2 O tell of his might, O sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.
- 3 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In Thee do we trust, nor find Thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
Our maker, defender, Redeemer and friend!
- 4 O measureless might, ineffable love!
While angels delight to hymn Thee above,
The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall sing to thy praise.

1 COME, every pious heart
That loves the Saviour's name,
Your noblest powers exert
To celebrate his fame;
Tell all above and all below
The debt of love to Him you owe.

2 He left his starry crown
And laid his robes aside,
On wings of love came down,
And wept and bled and died;
What He endured, O who can tell,
To save our souls from death and hell?

3 From the dark grave He rose,
The mansion of the dead,
And thence his mighty foes

In glorious triumph led;
Up through the sky the conqueror rode,
And reigns on high, the Saviour, God.

4 From thence He'll quickly come,
His chariot will not stay,
And bear our spirits home
To realms of endless day;
There shall we see his lovely face,
And ever be in his embrace.

5 Jesus, we ne'er can pay
The debt we owe thy love;

SAMUEL SEBASTIAN WESLEY, 1868.

1 The Church's one foun - da - tion Is Je - sus Christ, her Lord; She is his new cre -

a - tion By wa - ter and the word; From heav'n He came and sought her, To be his ho - ly bride; With his own blood He bought her, And for her life He died.

- 2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation
One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.
- 3 Though with a scornful wonder
Men see her sore oppress,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distrest,
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

- 4 'Mid toil and tribulation
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace forevermore;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.
- 5 Yet she on earth had union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won.
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee.

Till earth's delights resigning,
Our every wish is stilled.

From out the Saviour's heart,
A fountain purely flowing,
A fount of love Thou art;

- O let us, freely tasting,
Our burning thirst assuage;
Thy sweetness, never wasting,

1 Lead us, heav'n - ly Fa-ther, lead us O'er the world's tem-pest-u-ous sea;

Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us, For we have no help but Thee,

Yet poss-ess-ing ev - 'ry bless-ing, If our God our Fa-ther be.

Per. of Mrs. J. P. HOLBROOK.

2 Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us,
All our weakness Thou dost know;
Thou didst tread this earth before us,
Thou didst feel its keenest woe;
Lone and dreary, faint and weary,
Through the desert Thou didst go.

3 Spirit of our God, descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy,
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy;
Thus provided, pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy.

1 SHEPHERD of thine Israel, lead us,
Pilgrims, o'er this barren sand;
Thou who hast from bondage freed us,
Guard us by thine outstretched hand;
Guide thy chosen
Safely to the promised land.

2 Feed us with the heavenly manna,
Fainting, may we feel thy might;
Go before us as our banner,

Cloud by day and fire by night;
Great Redeemer,
Shine around us, Thou art light.

3 When we come to death's dark river,
Bid the swelling stream divide;
Thou who canst our life deliver,
Bear us through the Sundered tide;
Praises, praises
Will we sing on Canaan's side.

Time shall soon this earth remove; Rise, my soul, and haste away To seats prepared above.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course,
Fire ascending seeks the sun,
Both speed them to their source;
So a soul that's born of God,
Pants to view his glorious face,
Upward tends to his abode,
To rest in his embrace.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
Press onward to the prize;
Soon our Saviour will return
Triumphant in the skies;
Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance will be given,
All our sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven.

1 A - wake, my soul, stretch ev-'ry nerve, And press with vig-or on; A heav'nly race de-mands thy zeal, And an im-mor-tal crown, And an im - mor - tal crown.

- 2 A cloud of witnesses around
Hold thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod
And onward urge thy way.
- 3 'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high,

'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye.

- 4 Blest Saviour, introduced by Thee
Have I my race begun,
And crowned with victory at thy feet
I'll lay my honors down.

Philip Doddridge, 1740.

471

- 1 ALAS! what hourly dangers rise,
What snares beset my way!
To heaven O let me lift mine eyes
And hourly watch and pray.
- 2 How oft my mournful thoughts complain
And melt in flowing tears,
My weak resistance, ah! how vain,
How strong my foes and fears!
- 3 O gracious God, in whom I live,
My feeble efforts aid;

Help me to watch and pray and strive,
Though trembling and afraid.

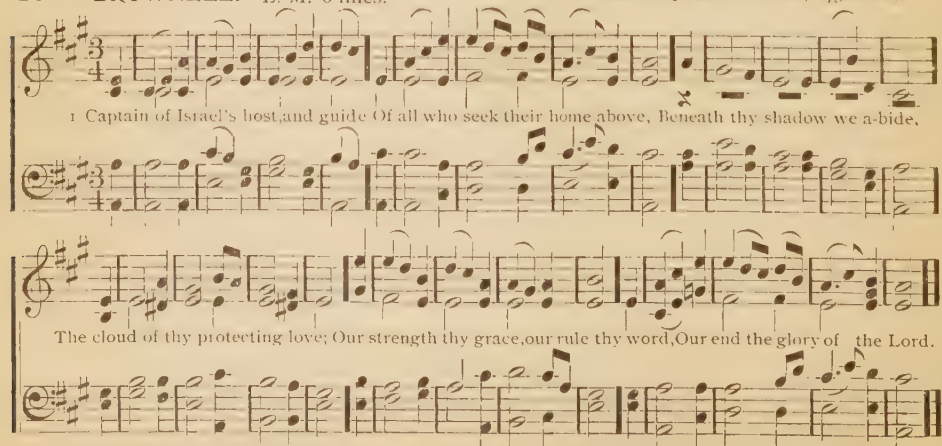

- 4 Increase my faith, increase my hope,
When foes and fears prevail,
And bear my fainting spirit up,
Or soon my strength will fail.

- 5 O keep me in thy heavenly way,
And bid the tempter flee,
And let me never, never stray
From happiness and Thee.

1 Jesus, Thou art my righteousness, For all my sins were thine : Thy death hath bought of God my peace, Thy life hath made Him mine.

2 Spotless and just in Thee I am,
I feel my sins forgiven;
I taste salvation in thy name
And antedate my heaven.

3 Forever here my rest shall be,
Close to thy bleeding side;
This all my hope and all my plea,
For me the Saviour died.

4 My dying Saviour and my God,
Fountain for guilt and sin,

Sprinkle me ever with thy blood
And cleanse and keep me clean.

5 Wash me, and make me thus thine own,
Wash me, and mine Thou art,
Wash me, but not my feet alone,
My hands, my head, my heart.

6 The atonement of thy blood apply
Till faith to sight improve,
Till hope in full fruition die
And all my soul be love.

Charles Wesley, 1740.

1 WHY should the children of a King
Go mourning all their days?
Great Comforter, descend and bring
Some tokens of thy grace.

2 Dost Thou not dwell in all thy saints,
And seal them heirs of heaven?
When wilt Thou banish my complaints
And show my sins forgiven?

3 Assure my conscience of her part
In my Redeemer's blood,
And bear thy witness with my heart,
That I am born of God.

4 Thou art the earnest of his love,

And thy soft wings, celestial Dove,
Will safe convey me home. Isaac Watts.

Behold the spirits of the just,

A humble, meek and lowly mind,
From pride and envy free.

Which neither life nor death can part
From Him that dwells within;

Perfect and right and pure and good,

Sing your Sav - iour's wor - thy praise, Glo - rious in his works and ways.

2 Lift your eyes, ye sons of light,

3 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.

4 Lord, obediently we go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only Thou our leader be,
And we still will follow Thee

5 Seal our love, our labors end,
Let us to thy bliss ascend,
Let us to thy kingdom come,

1 BLESSED are the sons of God;
They are bought with Jesus' blood,
They are ransomed from the grave,
Life eternal they shall have.

2 They are justified by grace,
They enjoy a solid peace;
All their sins are washed away,
They shall stand in God's great day.

3 They have fellowship with God,
Through the Mediator's blood;
One with God, through Jesus one,
Glory is in them begun.

4 They alone are truly blest;
Heirs with God, joint heirs with Christ,
They with love and peace are filled,
They are by his Spirit sealed.

Lowly, meek, in thought and word,
Altogether like our Lord.

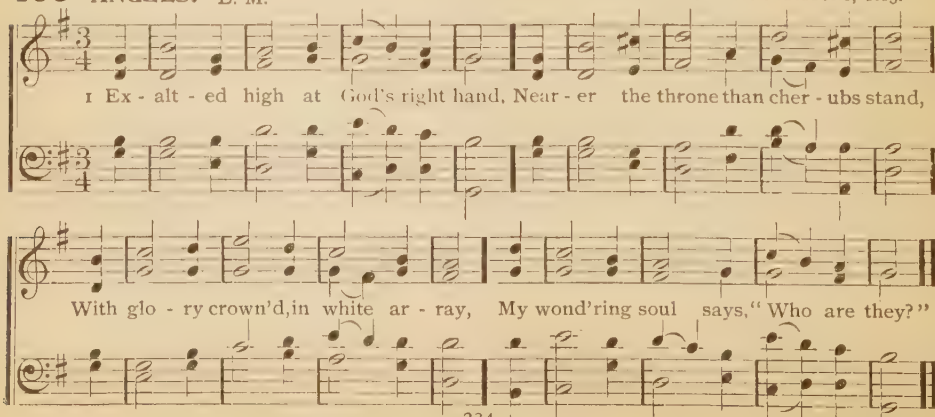

3 Let us for each other care,

All the heights of holiness.

488 LOVE DIVINE. L. M.

I. B. WOODBURY, 1848. Arr. by H. P. MAIN.

I Je-sus, my love, my chief de-light, For Thee I long, for Thee I pray,
A-mid the shadows of the night, A-mid the bus-'ness of the day.

- 2 When shall I see thy smiling face,
Which I thro' faith have often seen?
Arise, Thou sun of righteousness,
Dispel the clouds that intervene.
- 3 Thou art the glorious gift of God
To sinners weary and distressed,
The first of all his gifts bestowed
And certain pledge of all the rest.
- 4 Could I but say this gift is mine,
I'd tread the world beneath my feet,
No more at pain or want repine,
Nor envy the rich sinner's state.
- 5 This precious jewel let me keep
And lodge it deep within my heart;
At home, abroad, awake, asleep,
It never shall from thence depart.

489

- 1 REDEEMED from guilt, redeemed from
My soul enlarged and dried my tears, [fears,
What can I do, O love divine,
What, to repay such gifts as thine?
- 2 What can I do, so poor, so weak,
But from thy hands new blessings seek,
A heart to feel thy mercies more,
A soul to know Thee and adore?
- 3 O teach me at thy feet to fall,
And yield Thee up myself, my all,
Before thy saints my debts to own,
And live and die to Thee alone.
- 4 Thy Spirit, Lord, at large impart,
Expand and raise and fill my heart;
So may I hope my life shall be
Some faint return, O Lord, to Thee.

2 Thy word and holy festival,

Beneath the cloud baptized are we,
And Jesus leads us through the sea.

4 No arm can save us from the foe
But thine; no other hope we know;

We lean not on ourselves; thy rod
Is all our trust, Thou Son of God.

5 In all our long and weary way,

And rest forever with the Lord.

City of true peace divine,
Whose pure gates forever open
Each in pearly splendor shine,
Whose abodes of glory clear
Naught defiling cometh near?
3 There no stormy winter rages,
There no scorching summer glows;
But through one perennial springtide,
Blooms the lily with the rose;
And the Lamb with purest ray
Scatters round eternal day.
4 There the saints of God, resplendent
As the sun in all his might,
Evermore rejoice together,

Crowned with diadems of light,
And from peril safe at last
Reckon up their triumphs past.

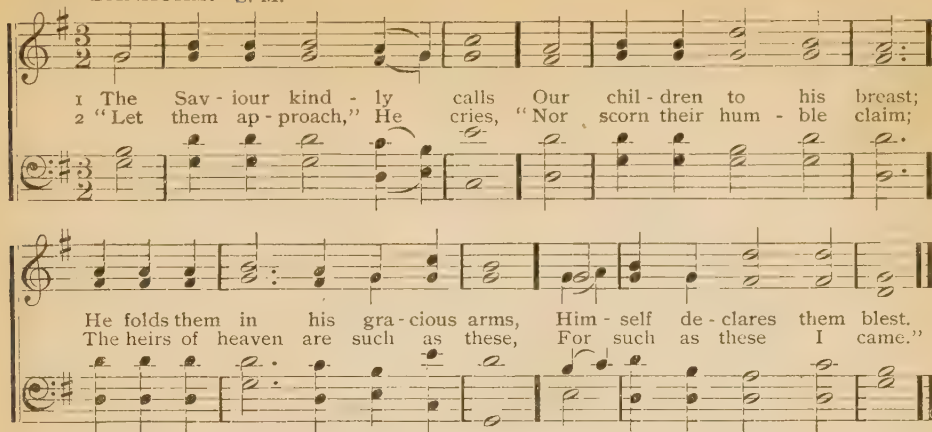

- 5 There, in strains harmonious blending,
They their sweetest anthems sing,
And, on harps divinely thrilling,
Glorify their glorious King,
Aided by whose arm of might
They were victors in the fight.
6 Look, O Jesus, on thy soldiers,

Grant, O grant us rest for ever

GEORGE FREDERICK HANDEL, 1741.

I Plant - ed in Christ, the liv - ing vine, This day with one ac - cord

Our - selves with hum - ble faith and joy We yield to Thee, O Lord.

- 2 Joined in one body may we be,
One inward life partake;
One be our heart, one heavenly hope
In every bosom wake.
- 3 In prayer, in effort, tears and toils
One wisdom be our guide;

- Taught by one Spirit from above,
In Thee may we abide.
- 4 Then, when among the saints in light
Our joyful spirits shine,
Shall anthems of immortal praise,
O Lamb of God, be thine.

L. L. WHITE, 1832.

I My God, ac - cept my heart this day, And make it al - ways thine,

That I from Thee no more may stray, No more from Thee de - cline.

- 2 Before the cross of Him who died,
Behold, I prostrate fall;
Let every sin be crucified,
And Christ be all in all.
- 3 Anoint me with thy heavenly grace
And seal me for thine own,
That I may see thy glorious face
And worship near thy throne.

- 4 Let every thought and work and word
To Thee be ever given;
Then life shall be thy service, Lord,
And death the gate of heaven.
- 5 All glory to the Father be,
All glory to the Son,
All glory, Holy Ghost, to Thee,
While endless ages run.

503

- 1 WITNESS, ye men and angels, now
Before the Lord we speak;
To Him we make our solemn vow,
A vow we dare not break,
- 2 That long as life itself shall last
Ourselves to Christ we yield,
Nor from his cause will we depart,
Or ever quit the field.

- 3 We trust not in our native strength,
But on his grace rely,
That with returning wants the Lord
Will all our need supply.
- 4 O guide our doubtful feet aright
And keep us in thy ways,
And while we turn our vows to prayers
Turn Thou our prayers to praise.

- 2 Remember still that they are thine,
That thy dear sacred name they bear;
Think that the seal of love divine,
The sign of cov'nant grace, they wear. 4 And when these lips no more can pray,
These eyes can weep for them no more,
Turn Thou their feet from folly's way,

- 1 THIS child we consecrate to Thee,
O God of grace and purity;
Shield it from sin and threatening wrong
And let thy love its life prolong.
2 O may thy Spirit gently draw
Its willing soul to keep thy law;
May virtue, piety and truth
Dawn even with its dawning youth.
3 We too before thy gracious sight
Once shared the blest baptismal rite,
And would renew its solemn vow
With love and thanks and praises now.
4 Grant that with true and faithful heart
We still may act the Christian's part,
Cheered by each promise Thou hast given
And laboring for the prize in heaven.

506

- 1 DEAR Lord, I give my heart to Thee; 4 This weighty sum of life I bring
Its throbs of griefs will never cease,
Till yearning faith be taught to see
In Christ the risen Prince of Peace.
2 My time is flitting day by day;
Sad conscience weaves in restless loom
A shroud whose dusky lines portray
The travails of eternal gloom,
3 The bitter fruits of wasted years,
The empty store of worldly gain,
Hope's blighted flowers, rank with tears,
And mem'ry's ashes mixed with pain.
5 My guilt, the spear that pierced thy side,
My death once swelled thy dying cry;
O cleanse my sins in mercy's tide,
Still ebbing earthward from the sky.
6 Thine eye doth read the soul's distress,
When mourning for thy peace it pleads;
Let thy forgiveness, Jesus, bless,
And fill my spirit's piteous needs.

With full consent thine would I be,
And own thy sovereign right in me.

I yield to Thee beyond recall;
Accept thine own, so long withheld,
Accept what I so freely yield.

- 3 Grant one poor sinner more a place

A wretched sinner lost to God,
But ransomed by Immanuel's blood.
- 4 The vow is past beyond repeal,
Now will I set the solemn seal;
Thine would I live, thine would I die.
Be thine through all eternity.

509 HAPPY DAY. L. M.

FROM E. F. RIMBAULT.

- 2 O happy bond that seals my vows
To Him who merits all my love;
Let cheerful anthems fill his house,
While to his sacred throne I move.
- 3 'Tis done, the great transaction's done,
Deign, gracious Lord, to make me thine;
Help me through grace to follow on,
Glad to confess thy voice divine.

- 4 Here rest, my oft divided heart,
Fixed on thy God, thy Saviour, rest;
Who with the world would grieve to part,
When called on angel's food to feast?
- 5 High heaven that hears the solemn vow,
That vow renewed shall daily hear,
Till in life's latest hour I bow
And bless in death a bond so dear.

2 With his blood the Lord has bought them; [them;
When they knew Him not He sought
And from all their wanderings brought
His the praise alone. [them;

3 Through the desert Jesus leads them,
With the bread of heaven He feeds them,
And through all the way He speeds them
To their home above.

4 There they see the Lord who bought them, [them,
Him who came from heaven and sought

Him who by his Spirit taught them,
Him they serve and love.

5 Let his people sing with gladness;
Other mirth than this is madness,
Mirth it is that ends in sadness,

They can sing with holy pleasure,
And their joy will know no measure
In the final day.

While in our mortal pain
None calls on Thee in vain,
Help Thou dost not disdain,
Help from above.

4 Ever be Thou our guide,
Our Shepherd and our pride,
Our staff and song,
Jesus, Thou Christ of God;
By thy perennial word
Lead us where Thou hast trod,
Make our faith strong.

5 So now and till we die
Sound we thy praises high
And joyful sing;
Let all the holy throng

MENDELSSOHN.

2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God,
Here drink with Thee the royal wine
of heaven,
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

Now wisdom can I lack while Thou art wise,
Not aching do I crave save thine alone,

3 I have no help but thine; nor do I need
Another arm save thine to lean upon;
It is enough, my Lord, enough indeed;
My strength is in thy might, thy might alone.

5 Mine is the sin, but thine the righteousness;

Mine is the guilt, but thine the cleansing blood;

Here is my robe, my refuge and my peace,
Thy blood, thy righteousness, O Lord,
my God.

4 I have no wisdom, save in Him who is My wisdom and my teacher, both in one;

6 Feast after feast thus comes and passes by,
Yet, passing, points to the glad feast above,

Giving sweet foretaste of the festal joy,
The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love.

To us the bread of life each mo - ment be. A - men.

2 "This is my blood, for sin's remission shed,"

He spake, and passed the wine-stained chalice round;

So let us drink, and on life's fulness fed
With heav'nly joy each quickening pulse shall bound.

3 The hour is come; with us in peace sit down,

Thine own beloved, O love us to the end;
Serve us one banquet ere the night's
Veil from our sight the presence of our friend.

4 Girded with love still wash thy servants' feet,
While they submissive wonder and

Bathed in thy blood our spirits every whit
Are clean, yet cleanse our goings more and more.

Some will betray Thee; "Master, is it I?"
Leaning upon thy love we ask in fear;
Ourselves mistrusting, earnestly we cry
To Thee, the strong, for strength when sin is near.

But round us fall the evening shadows dim,

A saddened awe pervades our darkened sense;

In solemn choir we sing the parting hymn,

And hear thy voice, "Arise, let us go hence."

C. L. Ford.

1 Draw nigh and take the body of the Lord,
And drink the holy blood for you out-
Saved by that body and that holy blood,
With souls refreshed we render thanks to God.

2 Salvation's giver, Christ, God's only Son,
By his dear cross and blood the vict'ry won;

Offered was He for greatest and for least,
Himself the victim and Himself the Priest.

He, ransom from death, and light from shade,

Now gives his holy grace his saints to aid;

With heav'nly bread makes them that Gives living waters to the thirsting soul.

4 Approach ye then with faithful hearts sincere,

And take the safeguard of salvation here;

He that in this world rules his saints and shields,

To all believers life eternal yields.

GREEK MELODY.

We stand in deep repentance Before thy throne of love; Behold us while with weeping
O God of grace, for-give us, The stain of guilt remove;

We lift our eyes to Thee, And all our sins sub-du-ing, Our Father, set us free.

1 By Christ redeem'd, in Christ re - stor'd, We keep the mem - o - ry a - dored

And show the death of our dear Lord, Un - til He come.

2 His body broken in our stead
Is here in this memorial bread;
And so our feeble love is fed
Until He come.

4 And thus that dark betrayal night
With the last advent we unite
The shame, the glory, by this rite
Until He come.

3 His fearful drops of agony,
His life-blood shed for us we see;
The cup shall tell the mystery
Until He come.

5 O blessed hope! with this elate,
Let not our hearts be desolate,
But strong in faith, in patience wait
Until He come.

I. TUCKER.

1 Come, let us join our cheer-ful songs With an-gels round the throne; Ten thousand thousand are their tongues, But all their joys are one, But all their joys are one.

- 2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
 "To be exalted thus;"
 "Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply,
 "For He was slain for us."

- 3 Jesus is worthy to receive
 Honor and power divine;
 And blessings more than we can give
 Be, Lord, for ever thine.

- 4 Let all that dwell above the sky
 And air and earth and seas,
 Conspire to lift thy glories high
 And speak thine endless praise.

- 5 The whole creation join in one
 To bless the sacred name
 Of Him who sits upon the throne
 And to adore the Lamb. Isaac Watts.

538

- 1 LET us adore th' eternal Word,
 'Tis He our souls hath fed;
 Thou art our living stream, O Lord,
 And Thou th' immortal bread.

- 2 Blest be the Lord that gives his flesh,
 To nourish dying men,
 And often spreads his table fresh,
 Lest we should faint again.

- 3 Our souls shall draw their heavenly breath
 Whilst Jesus finds supplies;
 Nor shall our graces sink to death,
 For Jesus never dies.

- 4 The God of mercy be adored,
 Who calls our souls from death,
 Who saves by his redeeming word
 And new-creating breath. Isaac Watts.

1 Ac-cord-ing to thy gra-cious word, In meek hu-mil-i-ty

This will I do, my dy-ing Lord, I will re-mem-ber Thee.

- 2 Thy body broken for me I take
 My bread from heaven shall be,
 Thy sacramental cup I take
 And thus remember Thee.

- 3 Can I Gethsemane forget
 Or there thy conflict see,
 Thine agony and bloody sweat,
 And not remember Thee?

- 4 When to the cross I turn mine eyes
 And rest on Calvary,

- O Lamb of God, my sacrifice,
 I must remember Thee,

- 5 Remember Thee and all thy pains,
 And all thy love to me,
 Yes, while a breath, a pulse remains,
 Will I remember Thee.

- 6 And when these failing lips grow dumb
 And mind and memory flee,
 When Thou shalt in thy kingdom come,
 Jesus, remember me.

I Lord, we come be - fore Thee now, At thy feet we hum - bly bow;

O do not our suit dis - dain; Shall we seek Thee, Lord, in vain?

- 2 In thine own appointed way
Now we seek Thee, here we stay;
Lord, from hence we would not go
Till a blessing Thou bestow.
- 3 Send some message from thy word
That may joy and peace afford;
Let thy Spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart.

- 4 Comfort those who weep and mourn,
Let the time of joy return;
Those who are cast down lift up,
Make them strong in faith and hope.
- 5 Grant that all may seek and find
Thee a God supremely kind;
Heal the sick, the captive free,
Let us all rejoice in Thee.

William Hammond.

541

- 1 HARK, my soul, it is the Lord,
'Tis thy Saviour, hear his word;
Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee,
"Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me?"
- 2 "I delivered thee when bound
And when bleeding healed thy wound,
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turned thy darkness into light.
- 3 "Can a woman's tender care
Cease towards the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be,
Yet will I remember thee.

- 4 "Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above,
Deeper than the depths beneath,
Free and faithful, strong as death.
- 5 "Thou shalt see my glory soon,
When the work of grace is done,
Partner of my throne shalt be;
Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me?"
- 6 Lord, it is my chief complaint
That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love Thee and adore,
O for grace to love Thee more.

William Cowper.

542

- 1 THINE forever, God of love,
Hear us from thy throne above;
Thine forever may we be,
Here and in eternity.
- 2 Thine forever, Lord of life,
Shield us through the earthly strife;
Thou the life, the truth, the way,
Guide us to the realms of day.
- 3 Thine forever, O how blest
They who find in Thee their rest!

Saviour, guardian, heavenly friend,
O defend us to the end.

- 4 Thine forever, Saviour, keep
These thy frail and trembling sheep;
Safe alone beneath thy care,
Let us all thy goodness share.
- 5 Thine forever, Thou our guide,
All our wants by Thee supplied,
All our sins by Thee forgiven,
Lead us, Lord, from earth to heaven.

2 For food He gives his flesh,
He bids us drink his blood;
Amazing favor, matchless grace
Of our descending God!

3 The sacred elements
Remain mere wine and bread,
But signify and seal the love
Of Christ, our cov'nant Head.

4 This holy bread and wine
Maintains our fainting breath
By union with our living Lord
And interest in his death.

5 Our heavenly Father calls
Christ and his members one,
We the young children of his love,
And He the first-born Son.

6 We are but several parts
Of the same broken bread;
One body hath its several limbs,
But Jesus is the Head.

7 Let all our powers be joined
His glorious name to raise;
Pleasure and love fill every mind,
And every voice be praise.

Isaac Watts.

1 JESUS, we thus obey
Thy last and kindest word,
And in thine own appointed way
We come to meet Thee, Lord.

2 Thus we remember Thee,
And take this bread and wine
As thine own dying legacy
And our redemption's sign.

3 Thy presence makes the feast;
Now let our spirits feel

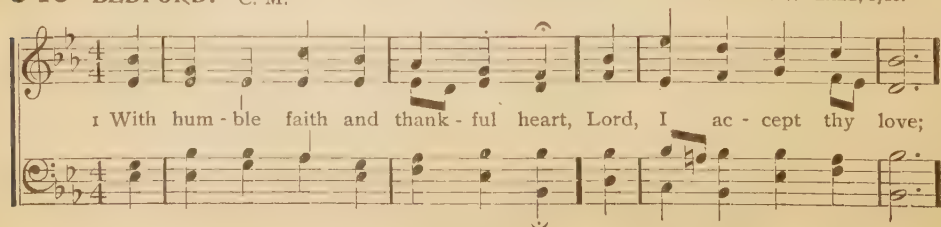

The glory not to be expressed,
The joy unspeakable.

4 With high and heavenly bliss
Thou dost our spirits cheer;
Thy house of banqueting is this,
And Thou hast brought us here.

5 Now let our souls be fed
With manna from above,
And over us thy banner spread
Of everlasting love.

For thy flesh is meat indeed;
Ever may our souls be fed
With this true and living bread,
Day by day with strength supplied
Through the life of Him that died.
- 2 Vine of heaven, thy blood supplies
This blest cup of sacrifice;
Lord, thy wounds our healing give,
To thy cross we look and live;
Jesus, may we ever be
Grafted, rooted, built in Thee.

1 How beauteous are their feet Who stand on Zi-on's hill, Who bring salvation on their tongues

And words of peace re - veal! How charming is their voice, How sweet their tidings are!

"Zi - on, be - hold thy Sav - iour King, He reigns and tri - umphs here."

2 How happy are our ears,

Which kings and prophets waited for
And sought, but never found!
How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light!
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.

3 The watchmen join their voice
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs
And deserts learn the joy.
The Lord makes bare his arm

Let every nation now behold

1 LORD of the harvest, hear
Thy needy servants cry;
Answer our faith's effectual prayer,
And all our wants supply.
On Thee we humbly wait,
Our wants are in thy view;
The harvest truly, Lord, is great,
The laborers are few.

2 Convert and send forth more
Into thy Church abroad,
And let them speak thy word of power,
As workers with their God.

Give the pure gospel word,
The word of general grace;
Thee let them preach, the common Lord,
The Saviour of our race.

3 O let them spread thy name,
Their mission fully prove,
Thy universal grace proclaim,
Thy all-redeeming love.
On all mankind forgiven
Empower them still to call,
And tell each creature under heaven
That Thou hast died for all.

WM. B. BRADBURY, 1844.

1 Christ is our cor - ner-stone, On Him a - lone we build; With his true saints a - lone The courts of heav'n are fill'd; On his . . . great love . . . our hopes . . we place . . Of pres - ent grace . . and joys a - bove.

2 O then with hymns of praise
These hallow'd courts shall ring;
Our voices we will raise,
The Three in One to sing,
And thus proclaim in joyful song
Both loud and long that glorious name.

3 Here, gracious God, do Thou
Forevermore draw nigh,
Accept each faithful vow,

And mark each suppliant sigh;
In copious shower on all who pray
Each holy day thy blessings pour.

4 Here may we gain from heaven
The grace which we implore,
And may that grace once given
Be with us evermore,
Until that day when all the blest
To endless rest are called away.

Corner-Stone, and Church Consecration.

Thou thy peo - ple's hearts pre - pare Here to meet for praise and pray'r.

2 Let the living here be fed
With thy word, the heavenly bread;
Here in hope of glory blest
May the dead be laid to rest.

Here reveal thy mercy sure,
While the sun and moon endure.

3 Here to Thee a temple stand,
While the sea shall gird the land;

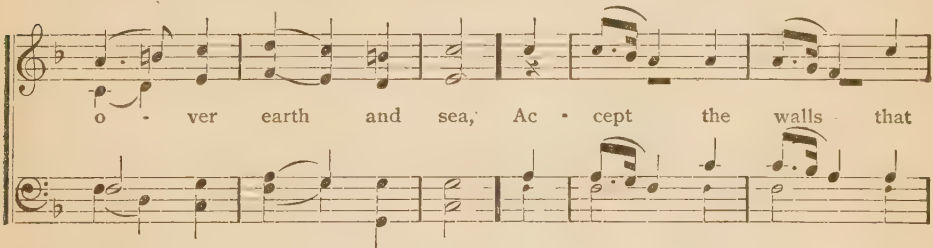

4 Hallelujah! earth and sky
To the joyful sound reply;
Hallelujah! hence ascend
Prayer and praise till time shall end.

His fi - at laid the cor - ner - stone And heav'd its pil - lars one by one.

2 He hung its starry roof on high,
The broad, illimitable sky;
He spread its pavement, green and bright,

3 The mountains in their places stood;
The sea, the sky and all was good;
And when its first few praises rang,
The morning stars together sang.

4 Lord, 'tis not ours to make the sea
And earth and sky a house for Thee;
But in thy sight our offering stands,
A humbler temple, made with hands.

5 We cannot bid the morning star
To sing how bright thy glories are;
But, Lord, if Thou wilt meet us here,
Thy praise shall be the Christian's tea:

- 2 So fades a summer cloud away,
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er,
So gently shuts the eye of day,
So dies a wave along the shore.
- 3 A holy quiet reigns around,
A calm which life nor death destroys, 5
And naught disturbs that peace profound
Which his unfettered soul enjoys.
- 4 Farewell, conflicting hopes and fears,
Where lights and shades alternate dwell;
How bright the th'unchanging morn appears,
Farewell, inconstant world, farewell.
- 5 Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
How blest the righteous when he dies!

A. L. Barbault.

572

- 1 WHY should we start and fear to die? 3 O if my Lord would come and meet,
What timorous worms we mortals are!
Death is the gate of endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.
- 2 The pains, the groans and dying strife
Fright our approaching souls away;
We still shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.
- 4 Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head
And breathe my life out sweetly there.

Isaac Watts.

573

- 1 THROUGH every age, eternal God,
Thou art our rest, our safe abode;
High was thy throne ere heaven was made
Or earth thy humble footstool laid.
- 2 But man, weak man, is born to die,
Made up of guilt and vanity;
Thy dreadful sentence, Lord, was just,
"Return, ye sinners, to your dust."
- 3 A thousand of our years amount
Scarce to a day in thine account,
- 4 Like yesterday's departed light
Or the last watch of ending night.
- 4 Death, like an overflowing stream,
Sweeps us away; our life's a dream,
An empty tale, a morning flower
Cut down and withered in an hour.
- 5 Teach us, O Lord, how frail is man,
And kindly lengthen out our span,
Till faith and love and piety
Fit us to die and dwell with Thee.

Isaac Watts.

1 A - sleep in Je - sus! bless-ed sleep, From which none ev - er wakes to weep,

A calm and un - dis - turb'd re - pose Un - bro - ken by the last of foes.

2 Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet,
With holy confidence to sing
That death hath lost his venom'd sting.

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear, no woe, shall dim that hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.

4 Asleep in Jesus! O for me
May such a blissful refuge be!
Securely shall my ashes lie,
Waiting the summons from on high.

5 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep.

Margaret Mackay, 1832.

575

1 THE God of love will sure indulge
The flowing tear, the heaving sigh,
When righteous persons fall around,
When tender friends and kindred die.

2 Yet not one anxious murmuring thought
Should with our mourning passions blend;

Nor would our bleeding hearts forget
Th' almighty, ever-living friend.

3 Beneath a numerous train of ills
Our feeble flesh and heart may fail,

Yet shall our hope in Thee, our God,
O'er every gloomy fear prevail.

4 Parent and husband, guard and guide,
Thou art each tender name in one;
On Thee we cast our every care,
And comfort seek from Thee alone.

5 Our Father, God, to Thee we look,
Our rock, our portion and our friend,
And on thy cov'nant love and truth
Our sinking souls shall still depend.

576

1 UNVEIL thy bosom, faithful tomb,
Take this new treasure to thy trust,
And give these sacred relics room
To seek a slumber in the dust.

2 Nor pain nor grief nor anxious fear
Invade thy bounds; no mortal woes
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
While angels watch the soft repose.

3 So Jesus slept; God's dying Son
Passed through the grave and blessed the bed; [throne
Rest here, blessed saint, till from his
The morning break and pierce the shade.

4 Break from his throne, illustrious morn;
Attend, O earth, his sovereign word,
Restore thy trust; a glorious form
Shall then arise to meet the Lord.

Isaac Watts.

- 1 THE pity of the Lord
To those that fear his name
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our feeble frame.
2 He knows we are but dust,
Scattered with every breath;
His anger like a rising wind
Can send us swift to death.

- 3 Our days are as the grass
Or like the morning flower;
If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.

To endless years endure,
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

3 There is no want in heaven;

Life's tree of twelve-fold fruitage still,
Life's spring which never dries.

4 There is no sin in heaven;

All holy is their spotless robe,
All holy is their song.

5 There is no death in heaven;

But lift up the heart and the eye and the love, O lift up the soul to the re-gions a-bove.

So too shall we mortals, or sooner or late;
Then stand we on Christ; let us mark
Him ascend,
For his is the glory and life without end.
- 3 On earth with his own ones, the giver of good, [stood,
Bestowing his blessing, a little while
Now nothing can part us, nor distance
nor foes,
For lo, He is with us and who can oppose?
- 4 So, Lord, we commit this our brother to Thee, [free;
Whose body is dead, but whose spirit is
We know that through grace, when our life here is done,
We live still in Thee and forever in one.
- 5 All glory to Thee, Father, Spirit and Son,
Who Three art in person, in substance
but One,
In whom we have victory over the grave,
Who lovest thy people to pardon and save.

OLEN S. CARTER.

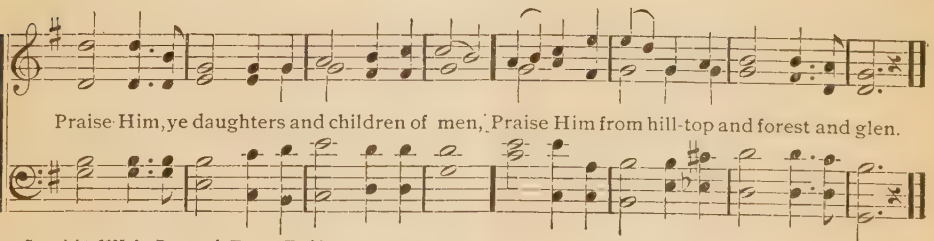

1 Thanks be to God for his won-der-ful love; Praise ye his name for the gifts from a-bove;

Anthems of gladness peal forth on the breeze, Ech-o his greatness o'er land and o'er seas.

Praise Him, ye sons of the bless-ed and good, Praise Him, ye mountains and valleys and flood,

Praise Him, ye daughters and children of men, Praise Him from hill-top and forest and glen.

Who wondrous things hath done, In whom his world rejoices,

Hath bless'd us on our way With countless gifts of love, And still is ours to-day.

died for thee; And hail Him as thy matchless King Thro' all e-ter-ni-ty. A-men.

2 Crown Him the Virgin's Son,
The God incarnate born,
Whose arm those crimson trophies won
Which now his brow adorn,
Fruit of the mystic rose,
True branch of Jesse's stem,
The root whence mercy ever flows,

And all be prayer and praise.
His reign shall know no end;
And round his piercéd feet
Fair flowers of Paradise extend
Their fragrance ever sweet.

3 Crown Him the Lord of love;
Behold his hands and side,
Those wounds, yet visible above,
In beauty glorified;
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wondering eye
At mysteries so bright.

5 Crown Him the Lord of heaven,
One with the Father known,
And the blest Spirit, through Him given
From yonder triune throne.
All hail, Redeemer, hail,
For Thou hast died for me;
Thy praise and glory shall not fail

1 Come, ye thankful peo-ple, come, Raise the song of har-vest-home; All is safe-ly

gath-er'd in, Ere the win-ter storms be-gin; God, our ma-ker, doth pro-vide

For our wants to be supplied; Come to God's own temple, come, Raise the song of harvest-home.

2 We ourselves are God's own field,
Fruit unto his praise to yield,
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear;
Grant, O harvest Lord, that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.

Give his angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store
In his garner evermore.

3 For the Lord our God shall come
And shall take his harvest home,
From his field shall in that day
All offenses purge away,

4 Then, thou Church triumphant, come,
Raise the song of harvest-home;
All are safely gathered in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin,
There, forever purified,
In God's garner to abide;
Come, ten thousand angels, come,

625 GRATITUDE. L. M.

A. BOST. Arr. by T. HASTINGS, 1837.

1 Now with the ris - ing, gold - en dawn, Let us, the chil - dren of the day,

Cast off the dark - ness which so long Has led our guilt - y souls a - stray.

2 O may the morn so pure, so clear,
Its own sweet calm in us instil,
A guileless mind, a heart sincere,
Simplicity of word and will.

3 And ever, as the day glides by,
May we the busy senses rein,
Keep guard upon the hand and eye,
Nor let the body suffer stain.

4 Grant us a body pure within,
A wakeful heart, a ready will,
That no dark deed nor cherished sin
The fervor of the soul may chill.

5 Fill Thou our souls, Redeemer true,
With thy most pure, celestial ray;
So may we walk in safety through
All the temptations of this day.

6 Upon our fainting souls distil
The grace of thy celestial dew;
Let no fresh snare to sin beguile,
No former sin revive anew.

7 Grant us the grace, for love of Thee,
To scorn all vanities below,
Faith to detect each falsity,
And knowledge Thee alone to know.
Latin Hymn. Tr. by E. Caswall.

626

1 MY God how endless is thy love!
Thy gifts are every evening new;
And morning mercies from above
Gently distil like early dew.

2 Thou spreadst the curtains of the night,
Great guardian of my sleeping hours;

Thy sovereign word restores the light
And quickens all my drowsy powers.

3 I yield my powers to thy command,
To Thee I consecrate my days;
Perpetual blessings from thy hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

Isaac Watts, 1709.

627

1 JESUS, where'er thy people meet,
There they behold thy mercy-seat;
Where'er they seek Thee, Thou art
found,
And every place is hallowed ground.

2 For Thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;

Such ever bring Thee where they come,
And going take Thee to their home.

3 Great Shepherd of thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew;
Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of thy saving name.

1 God of my life, my morn - ing song To Thee I cheer - ful raise;

Thy acts of love 'tis good to sing, And pleas - ant 'tis to praise.

2 Preserved by thy almighty arm,
I passed the shades of night,
Serene and safe from every harm,
To see the morning light.

4 O let the same almighty care
Through all this day attend;
From every danger, every snare,
My heedless steps defend.

3 While numbers spent their nights in
And restless pains and woes, [sighs]
In gentle sleep I closed my eyes
And rose from sweet repose.

5 Smile on my minutes as they roll
And guide my future days,
And let thy goodness fill my soul
With gratitude and praise.

629

1 O GOD, we praise Thee, and confess
That Thou the only Lord
And everlasting Father art,
By all the earth adored.

The world is with the glory filled
Of thy majestic sway.

2 To Thee all angels cry aloud;
To Thee the powers on high,
Both cherubim and seraphim,
Continually do cry:

4 Th' apostles' glorious company
And prophets crowned with light,
With all the martyrs' noble host,
Thy constant praise recite.

3 O holy, holy, holy Lord,
Whom heavenly hosts obey,

5 The holy Church throughout the world,
O Lord, confesses Thee,
That Thou th' eternal Father art
Of boundless majesty.

630

1 LORD, in the morning Thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high;
To Thee will I direct my prayer,
To Thee lift up mine eye,

Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight,
Nor dwell at thy right hand.

2 Up to the hills where Christ is gone,
To plead for all his saints,
Presenting at his Father's throne
Our songs and our complaints.

4 But to thy house I will resort,
To taste thy mercies there;
I will frequent thy holy court
And worship in thy fear.

3 Thou art a God before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;

5 O may thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness,
Make every path of duty straight
And plain before my face.

With humble gratitude I raise;
O let thy mercy tune my tongue,
And fill my heart with lively praise.
2 My days, unclouded as they pass,

3 And yet this thoughtless, wretched heart,
Too oft regardless of thy love,
Ungrateful can from Thee depart,
And fond of trifles vainly rove.

I plead for pardon, gracious God,
And find acceptance at thy throne.
5 Let this blest hope mine eyelids close,

Safe in thy care may I repose,

But there's a nobler rest above;
To that our longing souls aspire,
With cheerful hope and strong desire.
2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
Nor sin nor hell shall reach the place;
No groans to mingle with the songs
Which warble from immortal tongues. 4 O long expected day, begin,

And sleep in death, to rest with God.

1 LIFT up to God the voice of praise,
Whose breath our souls inspired;
Loud and more loud the anthems raise,
With grateful ardor fired.

3 Lift up to God the voice of praise
From whom salvation flows,
Who sent his Son our souls to save
From everlasting woes.

2 Lift up to God the voice of praise,
Whose goodness, passing thought,
Loads every moment as it flies
With benefits unsought.

4 Lift up to God the voice of praise,
For hope's transporting ray, [death
Which lights through darkest shades of
To realms of endless day.

1 NOW from the altar of our hearts
Let flames of love arise;
Assist us, Lord, to offer up
Our evening sacrifice.

3 New time, new favors and new joys
Do a new song require;
Till we shall praise thee as we would,
Accept our heart's desire.

2 Minutes and mercies multiplied
Have made up all this day;
Minutes came quick, but mercies were
More fleet, more free than they.

4 Lord of our time, whose hand hath set
New time upon the score,
Thee may we praise for all our time,
When time shall be no more.

FREDERICK A. J. HERVEY.

1 The rose - ate hues of ear - ly dawn, The bright - ness of the day,

The crim - son of the sun - set sky, How fast they fade a - way!

O for the pearl - y gates of heav'n, O for the gold - en floor,

O for the sun of right - eous - ness, That set - teth nev - er - more!

2 The highest hopes we cherish here,
How fast they tire and faint,
How many a spot defiles the robe
That wraps an earthly saint!
O for a heart that never sins,
O for a soul washed white,
O for a voice to praise our King,
Nor weary day nor night!

3 Here faith is ours and heavenly hope,
And grace to lead us higher;
But there are perfectness and peace
Beyond our best desire.
O by thy love and anguish, Lord,
And by thy life laid down,
Grant that we fall not from thy grace,
Nor cast away our crown.

1 PRAISE the Lord, ye heavens, adore
Praise Him, angels in the height; [Him;
Sun and moon, rejoice before Him;
Praise Him, all ye stars of light.

3 Praise the Lord, for He is glorious,
Never shall his promise fail;
God hath made his saints victorious,
Sin and death shall not prevail.

2 Praise the Lord, for He hath spoken,
Worlds his mighty voice obeyed;
Laws which never shall be broken,
For their guidance He hath made.

4 Praise the God of our salvation,
Hosts on high, his power proclaim;
Heaven and earth and all creation
Laud and magnify his name.

EDWARD HARWOOD, 1760.

1 Thy might-y work-ing, mighty God, Wakes all my pow'rs; I look a-broad,

And can no long - er rest; I too must sing when all things sing,

Morning and Evening.

2 If Thou, in thy great love to us,
Wilt scatter joy and beauty thus
O'er this poor earth of ours,
What nobler glories shall be given
Hereafter in thy shining heaven,
Set round with golden towers!

3 What thrilling joy, when on our sight
Christ's garden beams in cloudless light
Where all the air is sweet,

Still laden with th' unwearied hymn
From all the thousand seraphim
Who God's high praise repeat!

4 O were I there! O that I now
Before thy throne, my God, could bow,
And bear my heavenly palm!
Then, like the angels, would I raise
My voice, and sing thine endless praise

In many a sweet-toned psalm.

REV. D. E. JONES, 1815—1881.

1 Sav-iour, breathe an eve-ning bless-ing, Ere re- pose our spir-its seal;

Sin and want we come con-fess-ing, Thou canst save and Thou canst heal.

2 Though destruction walk around us,
Though the arrow near us fly,
Angel guards from Thee surround us,
We are safe if Thou art nigh.

3 Though the night be dark and dreary,
Darkness cannot hide from Thee;

Thou art He who, never weary,
Watchest where thy people be.

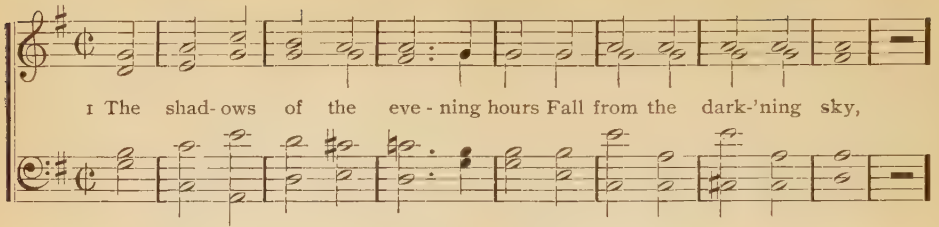

4 Should swift death this night o'ertake us
And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in heaven awake us,

1 The shad-ows of the eve-ning hours Fall from the dark-'ning sky,

Up - on the fra-grance of the flow'rs The dew's of eve-ning lie;

Be - fore thy throne, O Lord of heav'n, We kneel at close of day: . . .

Look on thy chil-dren from on high And hear us while we pray. A-men.

2 The sorrows of thy servants, Lord,
O do not Thou despise,
But let the incense of our prayers
Before thy mercy rise;
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows on our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthy love and joy
That one by one depart;

Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine;
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven
And trust in things divine.

4 Let peace, O Lord, thy peace, O God,
Upon our souls descend,
From midnight fears and perils Thou
Our trembling hearts defend;
Give us a respite from our toil,
Calm and subdue our woes;
Through the long day we suffer, Lord,
O give us now repose.

And wilt hear us?
Yes, we can.

4 In thy house, great God, we offer
Of thine own to Thee;
And for thine acceptance proffer,
All unworthily,
Hearts and minds and hands and voices,
In our choicest
Melody.

3 Yes, we know thy love rejoices
O'er each work of thine;
Thou didst ears and hands and voices
For thy praise combine,
Poet's art and music's measure
For thy pleasure
Didst design.

5 Honor, glory, might and merit,
Thine shall ever be,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
Blessed Trinity;
Of the best that Thou hast given
Earth and heaven
Render Thee.

689 CRUSADER'S HYMN. P. M.

Arr. by R. S. WILLIS.

1 Beau-ti-ful Sav-iour, King of cre-a-tion, Son of God and Son of Man,

Tru-ly I'd love Thee, Tru-ly I'd serve Thee, Light of my soul, my joy, my crown. A-men.

2 Fair are the meadows,
Fairer the woodlands,
Robed in flowers of blooming spring;
Jesus is fairer,
Jesus is purer,
He makes our sorrowing spirits sing.

Jesus shines brighter,
Jesus shines purer,
Than all the angels in the sky.

3 Fair is the sunshine,
Fairer the moonlight
And the sparkling stars on high;

4 Beautiful Saviour,
Lord of the nations,
Son of God and Son of Man,
Glory and honor,
Praise, adoration,
Now and forevermore be thine.

Tr. by R. S. Willis.

690 JESUS LOVES ME. 8s & 7s.

1 Je-sus loves me, Je-sus loves me, He is al-ways, al-ways near;

If I try to please Him tru-ly, There is naught that I can fear. A-men.

2 Jesus loves me; well I know it,
For to save my soul He died;
He for me bore pain and sorrow,
Nailéd hands and piercé side.

4 Jesus loves me, and He watches
Over me with loving eye,
And He sends his holy angels
Safe to keep me till I die.

3 Jesus loves me; night and morning
Jesus hears the prayers I pray,
And He never, never leaves me,
When I work or when I play.

5 Jesus loves me; O Lord Jesus,
Now I pray Thee by thy love
Keep me ever pure and holy
Till I come to Thee above.

691 OUR LEADER. 6s & 5s.

J. BAPTISTE CALKIN, 1871.

1 Je-sus Christ, our Saviour, Once for us a child, In thy whole behavior, Meek, obedient, mild,

In thy footsteps treading We thy lambs will be, Foe nor danger dreading, While we follow Thee.

2 For all gifts and graces
While we live below,
Till in heavenly places
We thy face shall know,
We, thy children, raising
Unto Thee our hearts,
In thy constant praising
Bear our duteous parts.

3 Let thine angels guide us,
Let thine arms enfold,
In thy bosom hide us,
Sheltered from the cold;
As thy love hath won us
From the world away,
Still thy hands put on us,
Bless us day by day.

D.C.—The Lord came down to save me, Because He loves me so.

Came down on earth to dwell; I am both weak and sinful, But this I sure-ly know,

Per. of JNO. CHURCH & Co.

2 I'm glad my blessed Saviour
Was once a child like me,
To show how pure and holy
His little ones should be;
And if I try to follow
His footsteps here below,
He never will forget me,
Because He loves me so.

3 To sing his love and mercy,
My sweetest songs I'll raise;
And though I cannot see Him
I know he hears my praise;
And He has kindly promised
That I shall surely go
To sing among his angels,
Because He loves me so.

ARTHUR S. SULLIVAN, 1872.

1 Onward, Christian soldiers, Marching as to war, With the cross of Je- sus Go-ing on be-fore;

Christ, the roy-al Mas- ter, Leads against the foe; Forward in-to bat- tle. See, his banners go.

CHORUS.

Onward, Christian soldiers, Marching as to war, With the cross of Je- sus Going on be- fore.

2 Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod;
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.—CHO.

3 Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the Church of Jesus
Constant will remain;

Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that Church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.—CHO.

4 Onward, then, ye people,
Join our happy throng;
Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph-song;
Glory, laud and honor
Unto Christ, the King,
This through countless ages
Men and angels sing.—CHO.

2 There were shepherds once abiding
In the field to watch by night,
And they saw the clouds dividing,
And the sky above was bright;
And a glory shone around them
On the grass as they were laid,
And a holy angel found them
And their hearts were sore afraid.

3 "Fear ye not," he said, "for cheerful
Are the tidings that I bring
Unto you so weak and fearful,
Christ is born, the Lord and King."

As the angel told the story
Of the Saviour's lowly birth,
Multitudes were singing "Glory
Be to God, and peace on earth."

4 Since thy love for our salvation,
Saviour, covered Thee with shame,
Let thy Church in every nation
Sing the glory of thy name;
Let thy Holy Spirit make us
Full of humbleness and love,
Like Thyself, until Thou take us
To our Father's house above.

 Watching silently.
- 3 Fear not, then, to enter,
 Though we cannot bring
 Gold or myrrh or incense,
 Fitting for a King.
 Gifts He asketh richer,
 Offerings costlier still,
 Yet may Christian children
 Bring them if they will.

 Shines the modest eye;
 Best of gifts, He loveth
 Infant purity. [come

 Born for us to-day.

Per. of FRED. SCHILLING.

2 Slumbering in a lowly manger
Lies the mighty Lord of all,
And before the holy stranger
See the trembling shepherds fall.
He has come, the long expected,
Full of wisdom, love and grace,
To redeem his ruined creatures,
To restore our fallen race.

CHO.—So let angels wake the chorus,
So let ransomed men reply,
Chanting the celestial anthem,
"Glory be to God on high."

3 And this joyful Christmas morning,
Breaking o'er the world below,
Tells again the wondrous story
Shepherds heard so long ago.
Who shall still our tuneful voices,
Who the tide of praise shall stem,
Which the blessed angels taught us
In the fields of Bethlehem?

CHO.—Hark, we hear again the chorus
Ringing through the starry sky,
And we join the heav'nly anthem,
"Glory be to God on high."

"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"
And, through the dark its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the gospel leads us home.—CHO.
- 3 Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,
And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.—CHO.
- 4 Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn and darksome night be past;
All journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.—CHO.
- 5 Angels, sing on, your faithful watches keeping,
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above,
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.—CHO.

708 THERE IS A GREEN HILL FAR AWAY.

R. S. WILLIS, 1849-1860.

Andante.

1 There is a green hill far a-way, With-out a cit-y wall, Where the dear Lord was cru-ci-fied, Who died to save us all. We may not know, we can-not tell, What pains He had to bear, But we believe it was for us He hung and suffer'd there. Amen.

2 He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by his precious blood.
There was none other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven and let us in.

3 O dearly, dearly has He loved,
And we must love Him too
And trust in his redeeming blood,
And try his works to do;
For there's a green hill far away,
Without a city wall,
Where the dear Lord was crucified,
Who died to save us all.

2 Sweet is the cross of Jesus;
There let my weary heart
Still rest in peace unshaken,
Till with Him, ne'er to part;
And then in strains of glory
I'll sing his wondrous power,
Where sin can never enter
And death is known no more.

CHO.—I love the cross of Jesus;
It tells me what I am,
A vile and guilty creature,
Saved only through the Lamb.

714 RIPPLE. 6s.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

1 There is a blessed home Beyond this land of woe, Where trials never come, Nor tears of sorrow flow,

Per. of BIGLOW & MAIN.

2 Where faith is lost in sight,
And patient hope is crowned,
And everlasting light
Its glory throws around.

3 There is a land of peace,
Good angels know it well;
Glad songs that never cease
Within its portals swell.

4 Around its glorious throne
Ten thousand saints adore
Christ, with the Father one
And Spirit, evermore.

5 O joy of joys beyond,
To see the Lamb who died,

And count each sacred wound
In hands and feet and side,

6 To give to Him the praise
Of every triumph won,
And sing through endless days
The great things He hath done.

7 Look up, ye saints of God,
Nor fear to tread below
The path your Saviour trod,
Of daily toil and woe.

8 Wait but a little while
In uncomplaining love;
His own most gracious smile
Shall welcome you above.

Henry W. Baker, 1861.

715 BADEA. S. M.

Att. by SCHWING. CHORAL.

1 My Father's house on high, Home of my soul, how near At times to faith's fore-see-ing eye Thy golden gates ap - pear!

2 Ah! then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above.

3 Yet clouds will intervene,
And all my prospect flies;
Like Noah's dove I flit between
Rough seas and stormy skies.

4 Anon the clouds depart,
The winds and waters cease,

While sweetly o'er my gladdened heart
Expands the bow of peace.

5 I hear at morn and even,
At noon and midnight hour,
The choral harmonies of heaven,
Earth's Babel tongues o'erpower.

6 Then, then I feel that He,
Remembered or forgot,
The Lord is never far from me,
Though I perceive Him not.

1 I think when I read that sweet sto-ry of old, When Je - sus was here among men,

And ask for a share of his love;

Wounded, impotent and blind;
Here the guilty, free remission,
Here the troubled, peace may find;
Health this fountain will restore,
He that drinks shall thirst no more.

3 He that drinks shall live forever,
'Tis a soul-renewing flood;
God is faithful, God will never
Break his covenant in blood,
Signed when our Redeemer died,
Sealed when He was glorified.

3 Take up thy cross then in his strength
And calmly every danger brave;

'Twill guide thee to a better home

- 4 Thou hast sent unto | us the | Comforter, || even the Spirit of truth, that He may a- | bide with | us for- | ever.
Thou hast sent the Spirit of thy Son into our hearts, whereby we cry unto Thee, | Abba, | Father. || It is the Spirit which witnesseth with our spirits that | we are the | children of | God.
- 5 The Spirit also helpeth | our in- | firmities, || and with groanings which cannot be uttered | maketh inter- | cession | for us.
We wait for the redemption | of our | body || and for the manifestation of the glorious liberty | of the | sons of | God.
- 6 The Spirit is the earnest and pledge of | our in- | heritance, || whereby also we are sealed | unto the | day of re- | demption.
O Lord, we praise Thee, and | render Thee | thanks || that Thou hast | given | us the | Spirit.
Glory be to the Father and | to the | Son || and | to the | Holy | Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and | ever shall | be, || world without | end.— |

771 MAGNIFICAT.

St. Luke i: 46.

- 1 My soul doth magni- | fy the | Lord, || and my spirit hath re- | joiced in | God
my | Saviour.
For He | hath re- | garded || the low e- | state of | his hand- | maiden.
- 2 For behold, | from hence- | forth || all gene- | rations shall | call me | blessed.
For He | that is | mighty || hath done to me great things, and | holy | is his | name.
- 3 And his mercy is on them | that fear | Him, || from gene- | ration | to gene- | ration.
He hath shewed strength | with his | arm; || He hath scattered the proud in the
imagi- | nation | of their | hearts;
- 4 He hath put down the mighty | from their | seats, || and exalted | them of | low
— | degree.
He hath filled the hungry | with good | things, || and the rich He | hath sent | empty a- | way.
- 5 He hath holpen his | servant | Israel, || in re- | membrance | of his | mercy,
As He spake | to our | fathers, || to Abraham, | and his | seed for- | ever.
Glory be to the Father and | to the | Son || and | to the | Holy | Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and | ever | shall be, || world without | end.— |

that | hate us;
  - 5 To perform the mercy promised | to our | fathers, || and to remember his | holy

  - 6 The oath | which He | sware || to our | father | Abra- | ham,

our | enemies, || might | serve Him | without | fear,
  - 8 In holiness and righteousness be- | fore— | Him, || all the | days— | of our | life.
  - 9 And Thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet | of the | Highest; | for Thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to pre- | pare— | his— | ways,
  - 10 To give knowledge of salvation | unto his | people, || by the re- | mission | of their | sins,

thy | word.
- 2 For mine eyes have seen | thy sal- | vation, || which Thou hast prepared be- |

774

Isaiah, 53.

- 1 He was wounded for | our trans- | gressions; || He was bruised for | our in- |
iqui- | ties.
  - 2 The chastisement of our peace | was upon | Him, || and with his | stripes— |
we are | healed.
  - 3 All we like sheep have | gone a- | stray; || we have turned every | one to | his own | way;
  - 4 And the Lord hath | laid on | Him || the in- | iquity | of us | all.
  - 5 He was oppressed and He | was af- | flicted, || yet He | opened | not his | mouth.
  - 6 He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her | shearers

775 DOMINUS REGIT ME.

DR. LOWELL MASON, 1792—1872.

Psalm 23.

- 1 The Lord | is my | Shepherd; || I | shall— | not— | want.
- 2 He maketh me to lie down in | green— | pastures; ||
He leadeth me be- | side the | still— | waters;
- 3 He re- | storeth my | soul; ||
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness | for his | name's— | sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will | fear no | evil; ||
For Thou art with me; thy rod and thy | staff they | comfort | me.
- 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence | of mine | enemies; ||
Thou anointest my head with oil; my | cup— | runneth | over.
- 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the | days of my | life; ||
And I will dwell in the | house of the | Lord for- | ever.
- Glory be to the Father and | to the | Son || and | to the | Holy | Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and | ever | shall be, || world | without | end. A- | men.

776 MISERERE MEI DEUS.

LANGDON.

Psalm 51.

- 1 Have mercy upon me, | O— | God, || according to | thy— | loving- | kindness;
According unto the multitude of thy | tender | mercies || blot | out— | my trans- | gressions.
- 2 Wash me thoroughly | from mine | iniquity, || and | cleanse me | from my | sin.
For I acknowledge | my trans- | gressions, || and my sin is | ever be- | fore— | me.
- 3 Against Thee, Thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil | in thy | sight: || that Thou might-
est be justified when Thou speakest, and be | clear when | Thou judg- | est.
Behold, I was | shapen in | iniquity, || and in sin did my | mother con- | ceive— | me.
- 4 Behold, Thou desirest truth in the | inward | parts; || and in the hidden part Thou shalt | make me | to know | wisdom.
Purge me with hyssop and I | shall be | clean; || wash me and I shall be | whi— | ter than | snow.
- 5 Make me hear | joy and | gladness, || that the bones which Thou hast | broken | may
re- | joice.
Hide thy face | from my | sins, || and blot | out all | mine in- | iquities.
- 6 Create in me a clean | heart, O | God, || and renew a right | spirit with- | in— | me.
Cast me not | away | from thy | presence, || and take not thy | Holy | Spirit | from me.
- 7 Restore unto me the joy of | thy sal- | vation, || and uphold me | with thy | free— | Spirit.
Then will I teach transgressors | thy— | ways, || and sinners shall be con- | verted | unto | Thee.
- 8 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, Thou God of | my sal- | vation, || and my tongue shall sing aloud | of thy | righteous- | ness.
O Lord, open | Thou my | lips, || and my mouth shall | shew forth | thy— | praise.
- 9 For Thou desirest not sacrifice, else | would I | give it; || Thou delightest | not in | burnt— | offering.
The sacrifices of God are a | broken | spirit; || a broken and a contrite heart, O God, | Thou wilt | not de- | spise.
- 10 Do good in thy good pleasure | unto | Zion; || build Thou the walls | of Je- | rusa- | lem.
Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and |
whole burnt | offering; || then shall they offer bullocks | upon | thine— | altar.
Glory be to the Father, etc.

777 DEUS MISEREATUR.

RICHARD FARRANT, 1530—1580.

Psalm 67.

- 1 God be,merciful unto | us and | bless us,||
And cause his | face to | shine up- | on us;
- 2 That thy way may be. | known upon | earth,||
Thy saving | health a- | mong all | nations.
- 3 Let the people praise | Thee, O | God,||
Let | all the | people | praise Thee.
- 4 O let the nations be glad and | sing for | joy,||
For Thou shalt judge the people righteously and govern the | nations | upon | earth.
- 5 Let the people praise | Thee, O | God,||
Let | all the | people | praise Thee.
- 6 Then shall the earth | yield her | increase,||
And God, even | our own | God, shall | bless us.
- 7 God | shall— | bless us,||
And all the ends of the | earth shall | fear— | Him.
Glory be to the Father, etc.

778 QUAM DILECTA.

Psalm 84.

- 1 How amiable are thy | taber- | nacles,||
O | Lord— | of— | hosts!
- 2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the | courts of the | Lord;||
My heart and my flesh crieth out | for the | living | God.
- 3 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may | lay her | young,||
Even thine altars, O Lord of hosts, my | King— | and my | God.
- 4 Blessed are they that dwell | in thy | house;||
They will be | still— | praising | Thee.
- 5 Behold, O | God our | shield,||
And look upon the | face of | thine a- | nointed.
- 6 For a day in thy courts is better | than a | thousand.||
I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than to dwell in the | tents of | wicked- | ness.
- 7 For the Lord God is a | sun and | shield;||
The Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will He withhold from | them that | walk up- | rightly.
- 8 O | Lord of | hosts,||
Blessed is the | man that | trusteth in | Thee.
Glory be to the Father, etc.

779 DOMINE, REFUGIUM.

FROM BEETHOVEN. By J. GOSS.

Psalm 90.

- 1 Lord, Thou hast been our dwelling place || in all — gen-e- rations.
Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever Thou hadst formed the earth and the world, || even from everlasting to ever- lasting | Thou art | God.
- 2 Thou turnest man to de- struction || and sayest, Re- turn, ye | children of men.
For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday | when it is | past || and as a | watch — | in the | night.
- 3 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they | are as a | sleep; || in the morning they are like | grass which | groweth | up;
In the morning it flourisheth and. | groweth | up; || in the evening it is cut | down and | wither- | eth.
- 4 For all our days are passed away | in thy | wrath; || we spend our years as a | tale — | that is | told.
The days of our years are threescore | years and | ten; || and if by reason of | strength they be | fourscore | years,
- 5 Yet is their strength | labor and | sorrow, || for it is soon cut off | and we | fly
a- | way.
So teach us to | number our | days, || that we may apply our | hearts — | unto | wisdom.
Glory be to the Father and | to the | Son || and | to the | Holy | Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev-er | shall be, || world without | end. — |
A — | men.

780 VENITE, EXULTEMUS DOMINO.

DR. BOYCE.

Psalm 95.

- 1 O come, let us sing un- | to the | Lord; || let us make a joyful noise to the | rock of | our sal- | vation.
Let us come before his presence | with thanks- | giving, || and make a joyful noise | unto | Him with | psalms.
- 2 For the Lord is a | great — | God || and a great | King a- | bove all | gods.
In his hand are the deep places | of the | earth; || the strength of the | hills is | his — | also.
- 3 The sea is his | and He | made it, || and his hands | formed the | dry — | land.
O come, let us worship | and bow | down, || let us kneel be- | fore the | Lord our | maker.

Chants.

4 For He | is our | God, || and we are the people of his pasture and the | sheep of | his— | hand.

To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts as in the provocation,
and as the day of temptation | in the | wilder- | ness, || when your fathers tempted me | proved me and | saw my | work.

5 Forty years long was I grieved with this gene- | ration, and | said,
It is a people that do err in their heart and they | have not | known my | ways,
Unto whom I swear | in my | wrath,
That they should not | enter in- | to my | rest.

Glory be to the Father, etc.

781 CANTATE DOMINO.

DR. RANDALL.

Psalm 98.

1 O sing unto the Lord a | new— | song, || for He hath | done— | marvelous | things;

His right hand and his | holy | arm || hath | gotten | Him the | victory.

2 The Lord hath made known | his sal- | vation; || his righteousness hath He openly showed in the | sight— | of the | heathen.

He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the | house of | Israel; ||
all the ends of the earth have seen the sal- | vation | of our | God.

3 Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, | all the | earth; || make a loud noise and re- | joice— | and sing | praise.

Sing unto the Lord | with the | harp, || with the harp and the | voice— | of a |
psalm.

4 With trumpets and | sound of | cornet || make a joyful noise be- | fore the |
Lord, the | King.

Let the sea roar and the | fulness there- | of, || the world and | they that | dwell
there- | in.

5 Let the floods clap their hands; let the hills be joyful together be- | fore the |
Lord; || for He | cometh to | judge the | earth.

With righteousness shall He | judge the | world, || and the | people | with— | equity.

Glory be to the Father and | to the | Son || and | to the | Holy | Ghost,

As it was in the beginning, is now and | ever shall | be, || world without | end.— |

Psalm 92.

- 1 It is a good thing to give thanks un- | to the | Lord, || and to sing praises unto thy | name,— | O Most | High,
- 2 To show forth thy loving kindness | in the | morning || and thy | faithfulness | every | night,
- 3 Upon an instrument of ten strings and up- | on the | psaltery, || upon the harp | with a | solemn | sound.
- 4 For Thou, Lord, hast made me glad | through thy | work; || I will triumph in the | works— | of thy | hands. Glory be to the Father, etc.

783 JUBILATE DEO.

Psalm 100.

- 1 Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, | all ye | lands. || Serve the Lord with glad-ness; come be- | fore his | presence with | singing.
Know ye that the Lord | He is | God; || it is He that hath made us, | and not | we, our- | selves;
- 2 We | are his | people || and the | sheep— | of his | pasture.
Enter into his gates | with thanks- | giving, || and | into his | courts with | praise.
- 3 Be thankful | unto | Him, || and | bless— | his— | name.
For the Lord is good; his mercy is | ever- | lasting, || and his truth endureth to | all— | gene- | rations. Glory be to the Father, etc.

784 BENEDIC, ANIMA MEA.

T. NORRIS.

Psalm 103.

Bless the Lord, | O my | soul, || and forget not | all his | ben-e- | fits;
- 2 Who forgiveth all | thine in- | iquities; || who | healeth all | thy dis- | eases;
Who redeemeth thy life | from de- | struction; || who crowneth thee with loving | kindness and | tender | mercies.
- 3 The Lord hath prepared his throne | in the | heavens, || and his kingdom | ruleth | over | all.
Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that ex- | cel in | strength, || that do his com- mandments, hearkening unto the | voice of— | his | word.
- 4 Bless ye the Lord, all | ye his | hosts, || ye ministers of | his, that | do his | pleasure.

My help cometh from the Lord, | which made | heaven and | earth.
  - 2 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; He that keepeth thee | will not | slumber. ||
Behold, He that keepeth Israel shall | neither | slumber nor | sleep.
  - 3 The Lord is thy keeper; the Lord is thy shade upon | thy right | hand; ||
The sun shall not smite thee by day | nor the | moon by | night.
  - 4 The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; He shall pre- | serve thy | soul. ||
The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and | even for- | ever- | more.

786 LAETATUS SUM.

Psalm 122.

- 1 I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the | house of the | Lord. ||
Our feet shall stand within thy gates, | O Je- | rusa- | lem.
  - 2 Jerusalem is builded | as a | city ||
That | is com- | pact to— | gether,
  - 3 Whither the tribes go up, the tribes | of the | Lord, ||
Unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks | unto the | name of the | Lord.
  - 4 For there are set | thrones of | judgment, ||
The | thrones of the | house of | David.
  - 5 Pray for the peace | of Je- | rusalem; ||
They shall | prosper that | love— | Thee.
  - 6 Peace be with- | in thy | walls ||

J. F. PETRI.

Psalm 130.

- 1 Out of the depths have I cried unto | Thee, O | Lord. || Lord, | hear— | my—
| voice.
- 2 Let thine ears | be at- | tentive || to the voice of my | suppli- | cations.
- 3 If Thou, Lord, shouldst | mark in- | iquities, || O | Lord,— | who shall | stand?
- 4 But there is for- | giveness | with Thee, || that | Thou— | mayest be | feared.
- 5 I wait for the Lord, my | soul doth | wait, || and in his | word— | do I | hope.
- 6 My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch | for the | morning; || I say more than | they that | watch for the | morning.
- 7 Let Israel hope in the Lord, for with the Lord | there is | mercy, || and with |
Him is | plenteous re- | demption.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

- 1 I am the resurrection and the life, | saith the | Lord; || he that believeth in Me,

- 2 And whosoever | liv- — | eth || and believeth in | Me shall | never | die.

live, we live unto the Lord, and whether we die, we | die un- | to the | Lord;
- 4 Whether we live therefore or die, we | are the | Lord's; || for to this end Christ
both died and rose and revived, that He might be Lord | both of the | dead

793 JESUS LIVES.

- 2 Jesus lives! | henceforth is death
But the grace of life im- | mortal;
This shall calm our trembling breath,
When we pass its gloomy | portal.
Alleluia.
- 3 Jesus lives! | for us He died;
Then, alone to Jesus | living,
Pure in heart-may we abide,
Glory to our Saviour | giving.
Alleluia.
- 4 Jesus lives! | our hearts know well
Naught from us his love shall | sever;
Life nor death nor powers of hell
Tear us from his keeping | ever.
Alleluia.
- 5 Jesus lives! | to Him the throne
Over all the world is | given;
May we go where He is gone,
Rest and reign with Him in | heaven.
Alleluia.

HYMN.

Hosanna to the living Lord.....	54
Hosanna to the Prince of light.....	285
Hosanna to the royal Son.....	116
How beauteous are their feet.....	556
How blest the righteous when he dies.....	571
How charming is the place.....	672
How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord.....	378
How oft, alas! this wretched heart.....	156
How shall the young secure their hearts.....	688
How sweet, how heavenly is the sight.....	662
How sweet the name of Jesus sounds.....	674
How tedious and tasteless the hours.....	756
How welcome was the call.....	751

I am coming to the cross.....	730
I am Jesus' little lamb.....	696
If Christ is mine, then all is mine.....	289
I hear the Saviour say.....	704
I hear thy welcome voice.....	722
I heard the voice of Jesus say.....	731
I lay my sins on Jesus.....	176
I love Thee, O most gracious Lord.....	182
I love thy kingdom, Lord.....	436
I love to hear the story.....	692
I love to steal awhile away.....	652
I love to tell the story.....	711
In all our wanderings here below.....	491
I need Thee every hour.....	739
In some way or other the Lord will provide.....	749
In the cross of Christ I glory.....	207
I saw the cross of Jesus.....	712
Is thy cruse of comfort failing.....	347
I saw one hanging on a tree.....	224
It came upon the midnight clear.....	63
I think, when I read that sweet story of old.....	719
I thirst, Thou wounded Lamb of God.....	213
It is not death to die.....	577
I was a wandering sheep.....	717
I will love Thee, all my treasure.....	201
I will sing of my Redeemer.....	735
I would not live away.....	744

Jerusalem, my happy home.....	55
Jerusalem the golden.....	36
Jesus, and shall it ever be.....	158
Jesus Christ is risen to-day.....	260
Jesus Christ, our Saviour.....	691
Jesus, exalted far on high.....	477
Jesus, I live to Thee.....	452
Jesus, I love thy charming name.....	64
Jesus, I my cross have taken.....	514
Jesus invites his saints.....	543
Jesus, keep me near the cross.....	721
Jesus lives and so shall I.....	366
Jesus lives, no longer now.....	273
Jesus, Lord, we kneel before Thee.....	206
Jesus, Lord, we look to Thee.....	484
Jesus, lover of my soul.....	177
Jesus loves me, Jesus loves me.....	690
Jesus meek and gentle.....	212
Jesus, most loving Lord.....	570
Jesus, most merciful and kind.....	358
Jesus, my Lord, how rich thy grace.....	258
Jesus, my Lord, my God, my all.....	230
Jesus my love, my chief delight.....	488
Jesus, my Saviour, look on me.....	687
Jesus, my Shepherd, let me share.....	292
Jesus, o'er the grave victorious.....	307
Jesus, our soul's delightful choice.....	371
Jesus, refuge of the weary.....	202

HYMN.

Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.....	725
Jesus shall reign where'er the sun.....	109
Jesus, tender Shepherd, hear me.....	694
Jesus, the Shepherd of the sheep.....	293
Jesus, the spring of joys divine.....	696
Jesus, the very thought of Thee.....	305
Jesus, Thou art my righteousness.....	473
Jesus, Thou joy of loving hearts.....	220
Jesus, thy blood and righteousness.....	181
Jesus, thy boundless love to me.....	183
Jesus, thy Church with longing eyes.....	33
Jesus, thy name I love.....	677
Jesus, to thy cross I hasten.....	205
Jesus wept, those tears are over.....	187
Jesus, we sing thy matchless grace.....	414
Jesus, we thus obey.....	544
Jesus, where'er thy people meet.....	627
Jesus, with all thy saints above.....	161
Join all the glorious names.....	421
Joy to the world, the Lord is come.....	44
Just as I am, without one plea.....	166

Keep Thou my way, O Lord.....	469
Kingdoms and thrones to God belong.....	605

Lead, kindly Light.....	464
Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us.....	466
Let me be with Thee where Thou art.....	294
Let saints below in concert sing.....	429
Let songs of praises fill the sky.....	320
Let us adore the eternal Word.....	538
Let us awake our joys.....	306
Let Zion praise the mighty God.....	607
Lift up to God the voice of praise.....	653
Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates.....	344
Lift your glad voices in triumph on high.....	275
Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart.....	445
Light of those whose dreary dwelling.....	24
Light's glittering morn bedecks the sky.....	280
Like Noah's weary dove.....	439
Lo, He comes, with clouds descending.....	14
Look from thy sphere of endless day.....	147
Look, ye saints, the sight is glorious.....	304
Lord, as to thy dear cross we flee.....	401
Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing.....	680
Lord, I am thine, entirely thine.....	508
Lord I am vile, conceived in sin.....	163
Lord, I believe, thy power I own.....	369
Lord, I hear of showers of blessing.....	718
Lord, in the morning Thou shalt hear.....	630
Lord, in this thy mercy's day.....	191
Lord, in thy name thy servants plead.....	598
Lord, it belongs not to my care.....	375
Lord Jesus, I long to be perfectly whole.....	736
Lord Jesus, when we stand afar.....	234
Lord, like the publican I stand.....	403
Lord of glory, Thou hast bought us.....	346
Lord of hosts, to Thee we raise.....	563
Lord of the harvest, bend thine ear.....	150
Lord of the harvest, hear.....	557
Lord of the hearts of men.....	119
Lord of the worlds above.....	362
Lord, pour thy Spirit from on high.....	549
Lord, thine appointed servants bless.....	551
Lord, thy glory fills the heaven.....	10
Lord, what our ears have heard.....	496
Lord, we come before thee now.....	540
Lord, when we bend before thy throne.....	533
Lord, with glowing heart I'd praise Thee.....	408
Love divine, all love excelling.....	102

Not all the blood of beasts.....	189	On Tabor's top the Saviour stands.....	130
Not by the martyr's death alone.....	85	On the fount of life eternal.....	494

To Zion's hill I lift mine eyes.....	461
Triumphant Zion, lift thy head.....	434
'Twas on that dark, that doleful night.....	521
Unveiled thy bosom, faithful tomb.....	576
Uplift the banner, let it float.....	148
Upward I lift mine eyes.....	393
Vain are the hopes the sons of men.....	458

When Jordan hushed his waters still.....	84
When, Lord, to this our western land.....	151
When marshalled on the nightly plain.....	87
When on Sinai's top I see.....	255
When overwhelmed with grief.....	173
When shades of night around us close.....	34
When the faithful were assembled.....	817
When Thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come.....	53
When two friends on Easter day.....	276
When waves of trouble 'round me roll.....	883
When wounded sore the stricken soul.....	159
Where two or three with sweet accord.....	682
While shepherds watched their flocks.....	698
While Thee I seek, protecting power.....	372
While Thou, O my God, art my help.....	115
Who are these in bright array.....	746
Who is there like Thee.....	720
Who is this that comes from Edom.....	239
Why should the children of a King.....	474
Why should we start and fear to die.....	572
With broken heart and contrite sigh.....	171
With humble faith and thankful heart.....	545
Within the Father's house.....	125
Witness, ye men and angels, now.....	508
Work, for the night is coming.....	144
Ye choirs of new Jerusalem.....	274
Ye Christian heralds, go, proclaim.....	553
Ye saints, proclaim abroad.....	81
